

ANNO TRICESIMO QUINTO ET TRICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1872.

No. 24.

An Act to enable the holders of certain pastoral Leases to come under the provisions of the "Waste Lands Amendment and Procedure Act, 1869-70."

[Assented to, 27th November, 1872.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the time within which the lessees of the Waste Lands of the Crown comprised in the leases specified in the First Schedule hereto, may apply for and obtain new leases under the provisions of Section 31 of the "Waste Lands Amendment and Procedure Act, 1869-70," and to provide that the holders of the leases specified in the Second Schedule hereto, shall have the privileges and advantages hereinafter expressed—Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

1. Any of the lessees of any of the waste lands comprised in the leases specified in the first Schedule hereto, who have neglected to apply for leases within two months from the passing of the "Waste Lands Amendment and Procedure Act, 1869-70," as provided by the thirty-first section of that Act, and who shall, within two months from the passing hereof, make such application, shall be entitled to have leases issued to them in the like manner as they would have been entitled had they so applied within the time by such section limited.

Extension of time for lessees to give notice of desire to obtain fresh leases.

2. The Fifth Schedule to the "Waste Lands Amendment and Procedure Act, 1869-70," shall be read and construed as if such of
