

ANNO SEPTIMO

GEORGI VI REGIS.

A.D. 1943.

No. 16 of 1943.An Act to amend the Police Pensions Act, 1929-1942.[Assented to 9th December, 1943.]*

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows :

Short titles.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Police Pensions Act Amendment Act, 1943".

(2) The Police Pensions Act, 1929-1942, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the "Police Pensions Act, 1929-1943".

(3) The Police Pensions Act, 1929-1942, is hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act":

Enactment of s.
3a of principal
Act—

2. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 3 thereof:—

Rights of junior constables serving in the armed forces.

3a. (1) If during the present war a junior constable in the police force serves in any naval, military or air force of the Commonwealth or of any other part of His Majesty's dominions and if whilst serving in any such naval, military or air force he attains the age of twenty-one years, he shall, from the time he attains that age, and during such time as he continues to be a constable, be deemed to be a member of the police force for the purposes of this Act.

If any such junior constable attained the age of twenty-one years before the passing of the Police Pensions Act Amendment Act, 1943, he shall be deemed to have been a member of the police force for the purposes of this Act since the time he attained that age.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to any such junior constable whether or not he has taken and subscribed an oath as required by section 11 of the Police Act, 1936-1938.

(3) In this section "the present war" means the war in which His Majesty was engaged at the passing of the Police Pensions Act Amendment Act, 1943.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

C. M. BARCLAY-HARVEY, Governor.
