An Act for the appropriation of money from the Consolidated Account for the financial year ending on 30 June 1998.

[Assented to 27 March 1997]

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Supply Act 1997.

Interpretation

2. In this Act—

"administrative unit" means an administrative structure established under, or continued in existence by, the Government Management and Employment Act 1985 or the Public Sector Management Act 1995;

"agency" means a Minister, an administrative unit (including part of an administrative unit) or any other instrumentality or agency of the Crown.

Appropriation

3. (1) The sum of five hundred million dollars is appropriated from the Consolidated Account for the Public Service of the State for the financial year ending on 30 June 1998.

- (2) Money must not be issued or applied pursuant to that appropriation for any purpose in excess of the amount appropriated by Parliament for the same purpose in respect of the 1996/1997 financial year.

(3) Where a purpose for which Parliament appropriated money in respect of the 1996/1997 financial year was to enable a particular agency to carry out its functions and duties and—

- (a) some of the functions or duties of the agency are transferred to another agency; or
- (b) the agency is abolished or dissolved and some or all of its functions or duties become the functions or duties of another agency, the issue and application of money under this Act to enable the other agency to carry out those functions or duties will be taken to be for the same purpose as the appropriation of money for the firstmentioned agency in respect of the 1996/1997 financial year.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.
