

ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1902.

No. 795.

An Act to amend the "Early Closing Act, 1900," and
"The Early Closing Amendment Act, 1901."

[Assented to, November 13th, 1902.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Early Closing Amendment Act, 1902," and shall be read and construed and be concurrent with the "Early Closing Act, 1900," and "The Early Closing Amendment Act, 1901," hereinafter referred to as "The Early Closing Acts."

Short title, incorporation, and duration.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Early Closing Acts, there shall be no limit to the time during which a shopkeeper, whether within a metropolitan or a country shopping district, or the husband or wife of such shopkeeper may keep his shop open, and, with the assistance of one member of his family, sell goods therein on any week day whatsoever.

No limit to time of closing in certain cases.

3. The provision of the foregoing section shall not apply to any shopkeeper who employs any shop assistant who is not a member of his family.

Limitation application of section 2.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

S. J. WAY, Lieutenant-Governor.
