

ANNO TERTIO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1903.

No 844.

Repealed by No 968 of 1908, 54.

An Act to further amend "The Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1882," and for other purposes.

[Assented to, October 30th, 1903.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of the State of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Food and Drugs Further Amendment Act, 1903," and shall be read and incorporated with "The Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1882" (hereinafter called the principal Act), and all Acts amending the same. Short title.

2. Every inspector appointed pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of "The Food and Drugs Act Amendment Act, 1890," shall be appointed by the Governor, and such inspector shall have and exercise throughout the State all the powers and authorities conferred upon any officer or local inspector under the principal Act. The inspector appointed by the Governor to have the powers of a local inspector.

3. Every officer appointed by the Government under the said section 4 for the purpose of making any analysis shall have and exercise throughout the State all the powers and authorities of an analyst appointed by a local authority under the said Act. Government analyst to have the same powers as a local analyst.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE, Governor.
