

ANNO SECUNDO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1911.

No. 1050.

An Act to enable Women to practise the Profession of the Law.

[Assented to, December 7th, 1911.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Female Law Practitioners Act, 1911." Short title.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act or any Rules of Court, and notwithstanding any law or usage to the contrary, any woman shall be entitled to be admitted to practise as a barrister, attorney, solicitor, and proctor of the Supreme Court, on complying with the Rules of Court in that behalf.

Women may be admitted to practise in the Supreme Court. Cf. N.Z., 11, 1896. 100, 1908, section 4 (1). Vic., 1837, 1903.

(2) For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act, every word in any Rules of Court, as well as in any Act, of or importing the masculine gender shall be construed as including the feminine gender.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
