

ANNO SECUNDO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1911.

No. 1065.

An Act to further amend the Constitution by giving the Governor certain powers for the Appropriation of limited parts of the Revenue of the State.

[Assented to, December 23rd, 1911.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Governor's Appropriation Act, 1911." Short title.

2. This Act is incorporated and shall be read as one Act with "The Constitution Act" and all Acts amending or incorporated with that Act. Incorporation with other Acts.
No. 2 of 1855-6.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act with which this Act is incorporated, it shall be lawful for the Governor, without any authority except this Act, to appropriate by warrant to the public service within the said State, such amount or amounts of the revenue of the said State as it may be necessary to apply for the said service before obtaining the advice and consent of Parliament in that behalf: Provided that the amounts so appropriated in any financial year shall not exceed in the aggregate Two Hundred Thousand Pounds, and that of such amount not more than Fifty Thousand Pounds shall be so appropriated in any financial year, except for purposes mentioned in the Estimates of Expenditure for such

Governor may appropriate limited amounts of revenue.

The Governor's Appropriation Act.—1911.

such year, or, when such Estimates have not yet been laid on the table of the House of Assembly, for purposes mentioned in the Estimates of Expenditure for the next preceding financial year.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
