

ANNO TERTIO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1912.

No. 1088.

An Act to provide for the Construction of Railways from various points on the Tailem Bend and Brown's Well Railway to Peebinga, Paringa, Loxton, and Waikerie respectively, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, November 28th, 1912.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Peebinga, Paringa, Loxton, and Waikerie Railways Act, 1912." Short title.
2. The Acts mentioned or referred to in the First Schedule, so far as they are severally applicable, but with the exceptions stated in the said Schedule, are incorporated with this Act. Acts incorporated herewith.
3. The South Australian Railways Commissioner (hereinafter called "the Commissioner") may construct and maintain— Authority to construct railways.
 - (a) A railway (hereinafter called "the Peebinga Railway"), from such point as he deems proper, near Karoonda, on the railway authorised by "The Tailem Bend and Brown's Well Railway Act, 1909" (hereinafter called "the Brown's Well Railway"), to such point as he deems proper about four miles east of Peebinga, as the Peebinga Railway is delineated in the plan deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, in Adelaide, signed "J. C. B. Moncrieff, Chief Engineer for Railways," and dated the thirtieth day of September, nineteen hundred and twelve; or as the Peebinga Railway is delineated in any plans after the passing of this Act so deposited, pursuant to any law for the time being in force as to the deposit of such plans:

- (b) A railway (hereinafter called "the Paringa Railway"), from the terminus, at or near Brown's Well, of the Brown's Well Railway, to Paringa, as the Paringa Railway is delineated in the plan deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, in Adelaide, signed, "J. C. B. Moncrieff, Chief Engineer for Railways," and dated the thirtieth day of September, nineteen hundred and twelve; or as the Paringa Railway is delineated in any plans after the passing of this Act so deposited, pursuant to any law for the time being in force as to the deposit of such plans:
- (c) A railway (hereinafter called "the Loxton Railway"), from such point as he deems proper, near Alawoona, on the Brown's Well Railway, to Loxton, as the Loxton Railway is delineated in the plan deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, in Adelaide, signed "J. C. B. Moncrieff, Chief Engineer for Railways," and dated the thirtieth day of September, nineteen hundred and twelve; or as the Loxton Railway is delineated in any plans after the passing of this Act so deposited, pursuant to any law for the time being in force as to the deposit of such plans:
- (d) A railway (hereinafter called "the Waikerie Railway"), from such point as he deems proper, near Karoonda, on the Brown's Well Railway, to Waikerie, as the Waikerie Railway is delineated in the plan deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, in Adelaide, signed, "J. C. B. Moncrieff, Chief Engineer for Railways," and dated the thirtieth day of September, nineteen hundred and twelve; or as the Waikerie Railway is delineated in any plans after the passing of this Act so deposited, pursuant to any law for the time being in force as to the deposit of such plans; and
- (e) All proper works and conveniences connected with, or for the purposes of the railways hereby authorised or any of them, or the said railways, or any of them, and any other railway or railways:

Provided that in case the Houses of Parliament are not sitting at the time when any plans and books of reference as to the said railways or either of them are deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General under section 9 of "The Railways Clauses Act, 1876," the Commissioner may make deviations under the said section before causing copies of such plans and books of reference to be laid before Parliament; but such copies shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the next sittings of such Houses respectively.

No. 32 of 1876.

Tenders to be called for, and cost of railway.

4. The Commissioner shall call for tenders for the construction of the said railways, to be sent in within such times, to such place, and

and to be upon and subject to such terms, conditions, and provisions as he deems advisable, and may accept or reject any tender, and may construct the said railways, or any of them, himself if no tender therefor is accepted: Provided that the average cost of constructing the said railways, whether constructed under contract or by the Commissionier, shall not exceed Three Thousand Pounds per mile.

5. Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the Commissioner may construct any or all of the said railways in sections, as he may find convenient, instead of as one work, and in that case section 4 of this Act shall apply in respect of each section.

The railway may be constructed and tendered for in sections.

6. The gauge of the said railways shall be five feet three inches, and the rails used in the construction thereof shall be of iron or steel, and of the weight of not less than forty pounds to the yard.

Gauge and rails.

7. The Commissioner may demand for the use of the said railways, and in respect thereof, and for the carriage of goods, stock, minerals, mails, parcels, and passengers thereon, and for the loading and unloading of goods, minerals, mails, and stock, such fares, tolls, charges, and rates as are from time to time fixed by the Commissioner, in manner prescribed by any Act or Acts under which the Commissioner may fix fares, tolls, charges, and rates in respect of the railways under his control.

Tolls and charges.

8. All fares, tolls, rents, dues, charges, rates, and sums of money which are received and levied under authority of this Act shall be paid, in such manner as the Governor prescribes, to the Treasurer of the said State for the public purposes of the said State.

Appropriation of tolls, &c.

9. With respect to any land purchased or taken by the Commissioner for the purposes of this Act, or with respect to which he exercises for such purposes the powers conferred by any of the Acts incorporated with this Act, if the amount of compensation to be paid to any owner thereof is not determined by agreement in writing, signed by or on behalf of such owner and the Commissioner, within twenty-one days after the Commissioner has given notice to such owner, as required by section 18 of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act," that he requires to purchase or take such land, or that he desires to have the compensation for the exercise of the said powers fixed, as the case may be, the amount of compensation shall be determined by arbitration in the following manner:—

Method of determining purchase-money and compensation for land taken.

No. 6 of 1847.

- i. The Commissioner may give notice in writing to such owner of his intention to have the compensation settled by arbitration, and may, by the same or a subsequent notice in writing to such owner, nominate and appoint an arbitrator to act in the reference on behalf of the Commissioner:

Notice to arbitrate and appointment of arbitrator by Commissioner.

ii. Such

The Peebinga, Paringa, Loxton, and Waikerie Railways Act.—1912.

Appointment of arbitrator by owner.

II. Such owner may, within twenty-one days after the giving of such notice appointing an arbitrator, give notice in writing to the Commissioner agreeing that such arbitrator shall be sole arbitrator, or nominating and appointing another arbitrator to act in the reference on behalf of such owner :

Notice of appointment deemed a submission.

III. Each such notice nominating and appointing an arbitrator, or agreeing to the appointment of a sole arbitrator, shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same is given ; and after the giving of any such notice neither party shall have power to revoke the appointment thereby made or such submission without the consent in writing of the other party, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation :

In default of appointment by owner arbitrator appointed by Commissioner to act alone.

IV. Unless such owner, within twenty-one days after the giving by the Commissioner as aforesaid of notice nominating and appointing an arbitrator, gives notice to the Commissioner, as provided by paragraph II. hereof, agreeing that such arbitrator shall be sole arbitrator or nominating and appointing another arbitrator, the Commissioner may appoint the arbitrator nominated and appointed by him to act on behalf of both parties ; and such arbitrator shall proceed to hear and determine the matter and shall give his award determining the compensation (if any) to be paid :

Provisions as to umpire, vacancies, &c.

V. All the provisions of sections 26 to 35 inclusive, of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act" shall, mutatis mutandis, apply with respect to the determination of the compensation :

Informality not to invalidate.

VI. No notice, appointment, or award made under this section shall be set aside or be invalid for irregularity or error in matter of form :

Award to be final.

VII. Every award under this section of arbitrators, or of a single arbitrator (in a case where it is agreed, as mentioned in paragraph II. hereof, that an arbitrator shall be the sole arbitrator, or where a single arbitrator is empowered by this section to give an award), or of an umpire, shall be final : Provided always that where an arbitrator or umpire has misconducted himself, the Court may remove him, and that where an arbitrator has misconducted himself, or an arbitration or award has been improperly procured, the Court may set the award aside. "Court" in this paragraph means the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof :

Effect of submission and award.

VIII. A submission to arbitration under this section shall have the same effect as if it had been made an order of the Supreme Court ; and an award under this section may, by leave of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of the said Court to the same effect :

IX. In

The Peebinga, Paringa, Loxton, and Waikerie Railways Act.—1912.

ix. In this section—

(a) The word “owner” includes, with respect to any land, any person having any estate or interest (legal or equitable) in the land, or any easement, right, power, or privilege in, under, over, affecting, or in connection with the land, or by the “Lands Clauses Consolidation Act” enabled to sell and convey, transfer, release, assign, or otherwise assure such estate, interest, easement, right, power, or privilege; and

Meaning of “owner”
and “land.”

No. 6 of 1847.

(b) The word “land” includes any estate or interest (legal or equitable) in land, and any easement, right, or privilege in, under, over, affecting, or in connection with land.

10. (1) When any Crown lands situated as mentioned in the Second Schedule are, after the passing of this Act, sold or granted or contracted to be sold or granted by or on behalf of the Crown, whether under an agreement containing a covenant to purchase or otherwise, all purchase-moneys received in respect of such land shall be paid to the credit of the Loan Fund, and, unless and until otherwise provided by Parliament, the interest on such moneys shall be applied as revenue for the general purposes of the said State.

Purchase-money of certain Crown lands to go to Loan Fund and income to revenue.

(2) When Crown lands are sold or granted or contracted to be sold or granted under an agreement containing a covenant to purchase, or otherwise upon credit, subsection (1) shall apply only to so much of the moneys to be paid under such agreement or otherwise as represents the purchase-money, as distinguished from interest thereon and rent, and so much thereof as represents interest and rent shall, unless and until otherwise provided by Parliament, be applied as revenue for the general purposes of the said State.

(3) In this section and in the Second Schedule “Crown lands” includes any lands which are subject to any lease or licence granted by or on behalf of the Crown, as well as Crown lands within the meaning of “The Crown Lands Act, 1903.”

No. 830 of 1903.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.
