

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO ET SEXAGESIMO
QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1900.

No. 743.

An Act to amend the Seed Wheat Acts.

[Assented to, December 5th, 1900.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Seed Wheat Amendment Act, 1900," and shall be incorporated with "The Seed Wheat Act, 1896," and the Acts incorporated therewith, hereafter called the Seed Wheat Acts. Short title and incorporation.

2. (1) Whenever a District Council is satisfied that serious hardship would be inflicted by requiring payment at the due date of any moneys payable in respect of seed wheat supplied pursuant to the Seed Wheat Acts, such Council may extend the time for the payment of such moneys, and may also in any such case of hardship remit wholly or in part the interest to fall due hereafter on any moneys advanced under this Act. Extension of times for repayment.

(2) The extension of time granted may provide for the repayment of the moneys payable, with the interest thereon, in not more than five equal annual payments, the first of which is to become due not more than one year from the date of the extension being granted, and a similar payment to become due on the same date in each year thereafter until the whole of the moneys payable have been paid.

(3) The

The Seed Wheat Amendment Act.—1900.

(3) The Treasurer may exercise similar powers in the case of any farmer not within any District Council to whom seed wheat has been supplied by him.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

TENNYSON, Governor.
