

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO ET QUINQUAGESIMO
PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1887.

No. 409.

An Act for amending the Act No. 26 of 1862, and for preventing the further spread of the Star Thistle.

[Assented to, December 9th, 1887.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to prevent the further spread of the star thistle—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

1. The preamble of "The Thistle and Bur Act of 1862," shall be read as if the words "star thistle" were inserted therein after the words "variegated thistle," and the second section of the said Act shall be read as if the words "star thistle" were inserted therein after the words "variegated thistle," in the fourth line thereof.

Amendments of Act 26, 1862.

2. The Governor may, after resolutions have been carried by both Houses of Parliament asking him so to do, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, declare any weed to be a noxious weed, and to be included in "The Thistle and Bur Act of 1862," and thereupon the said Act shall be read as if the name of the weed so proclaimed were inserted therein after the words "star thistle," or may by such Proclamation exempt from the operation of the said Act any such weed so named.

Governor may proclaim noxious weed.

3. "The

The Thistle and Bur Act.—1887.

Repeal.

3. “The Thistle and Bur Act of 1862” is hereby repealed so far as relates to the destruction of the Scotch and variegated thistles, but not further or otherwise.

Short title.

4. This Act may be called “The Thistle and Bur Act, 1887.”

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. C. F. ROBINSON, Governor.
