

DAYLIGHT SAVING.

No. 42 of 1968.

AN ACT to promote the earlier use of daylight in certain months yearly and to provide for matters incidental thereto. [15 October 1968.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the Daylight Saving Act 1968.

Interpretation.

V, c. 22
(Imp.), s. 3.

2 In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“standard time” means the time declared by the Standard Time Act 1895 to be standard time throughout this State;

“Tasmanian summer time” means the time to be observed throughout this State as prescribed by this Act.

Advance of time.

Tas., s. 4.
C'th, s. 4.

3—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Standard Time Act 1895, from the hour of two o'clock in the morning of the last Sunday in the month of October in each year (from and including the year 1968) until the hour of two o'clock in the morning of the second Sunday of March in the next following year, Tasmanian summer time shall, throughout the State, be one hour in advance of standard time, and shall be observed accordingly.

(2) In this section, the expression “the hour of two o'clock in the morning” means that hour as determined by standard time.
