

“17A—(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, no person shall administer to an animal, by any means, any substance to which this section applies.

Limitation on administration of certain substances to animals.

Penalty: One hundred pounds.

Cf. No. 6270 (Vic.), s. 242A.

“(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to or in relation to the administration to an animal of a substance to which this section applies where the substance—

- (a) is prescribed by a registered veterinary surgeon for the treatment of some illness or condition in the animal; and
- (b) is administered in accordance with that prescription.

“(3) In this section—

‘animal’ means any kind or species of animal (including a bird)—

- (a) the carcase or any portion of the carcase of which; or
- (b) any product or substance produced by or obtained from which, is to be or may be used, or is commonly used, as food for human consumption (whether in its natural state or after a process of preparation or manufacture);

‘registered veterinary surgeon’ means a registered veterinary surgeon as defined in the Veterinary Act 1918;

‘substance to which this section applies’ means—

- (a) any sex hormone (whether natural or synthetic) and any derivative of, or substitute for, a sex hormone; and
- (b) any other substance (whether natural or synthetic) that is declared by the Minister, by order, to be a substance to which this section applies, but does not include the substance known as testosterone or any of its derivatives.”

MARINE.

No. 11 of 1964.

AN ACT to amend the Marine Act 1921.

[5 August 1964.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Marine Act 1964.

(2) The Marine Act 1921, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section twenty-three of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

Launceston:
Qualification for, and election of, wardens.

“23—(1) Each warden of the Marine Board of Launceston, and each elector at elections of wardens of that Board, shall be a person who is qualified—

- (a) under the Launceston Corporation Act 1963, to vote at elections of aldermen for the city of Launceston; or
- (b) under the Local Government Act 1962, to vote at elections of councillors for the municipality of Beaconsfield or the municipality of George Town.

“(2) An election of wardens, or, as the case requires, of a warden, for the Marine Board of Launceston shall be held by the corporation of the city of Launceston in each year at the same time as, and in conjunction with, the annual election of aldermen in that year, and the provisions of the Launceston Corporation Act 1963, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary adaptations, apply accordingly to and in relation to elections of wardens of that Board.

“(3) At an election of wardens, or of a warden, of the Marine Board of Launceston—

- (a) each elector is entitled to have the same number of votes as he has at elections of aldermen for the city of Launceston, or, as the case requires, of councillors for the municipality of Beaconsfield or the municipality of George Town; and
- (b) the provisions of the Launceston Corporation Act 1963 relating to voting by post and to the method of counting votes, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary adaptations, apply to and in relation to the election as if it were an election of aldermen under that Act.

“(4) A person who acts as returning officer or presiding officer at any election of aldermen for the city of Launceston is not eligible to be elected as a warden of the Marine Board of Launceston on any day on which he so acts.

“(5) For the purposes of any election under this section, each of the councils of the municipalities of Beaconsfield and George Town shall—

- (a) appoint such polling-places within its municipal district, and such persons to act as presiding officers thereat, as it thinks necessary, and notify the returning officer for the city of Launceston—
 - (i) on or before the first day of October immediately preceding the date of the election, of the situation of all polling-places so appointed; and

(ii) on or before the fifteenth day of November immediately preceding the date of the election, of the names and addresses of all presiding officers so appointed; and

(b) cause to be compiled and furnished to the returning officer, not later than fourteen days before the date of the election, such number of copies as he may require of a list containing the name, address, and number of votes of each person whose name was, on the sixtieth day before the date of the election, included in the electoral index kept by the council clerk pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government Act 1962."

3 Section twenty-five of the Principal Act is amended— Costs of election.

- (a) by omitting the word "council" (twice occurring) and substituting therefor, in each case, the word "councils";
- (b) by inserting therein, after the word "Launceston", the words "and of the municipalities of Beaconsfield and George Town"; and
- (c) by omitting therefrom the word "sum" and substituting therefor the word "sums".

4 Section thirty-seven of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from subsection (1) thereof the word "male". Qualifications of wardens and trustees.

5 Section thirty-eight of the Principal Act is amended— Electors.

- (a) by omitting from subsection (1) thereof the numerals "1906" and substituting therefor the numerals "1962"; and
- (b) by omitting from subsection (2) thereof the word "six" and substituting therefor the word "four".

6 Section thirty-nine of the Principal Act is amended— Elections.

- (a) by omitting from subsection (1) thereof the word "April" and substituting therefor the words "the month of March or (as the case requires) the month of April";
- (b) by omitting from subsection (3) thereof the word "rolls" and substituting therefor the words "lists of voters" and by omitting from that subsection the word "six" and substituting therefor the word "four"; and
- (c) by omitting from subsections (4) and (6) thereof the numerals "1906" (wherever occurring) and substituting therefor, in each case, the numerals "1962".

General powers of boards.

7 Section sixty-four of the Principal Act is amended by inserting after paragraph (w) of subsection (1) thereof the following paragraph:—

“(wa) to assist officers, employees, and servants of the board to purchase or otherwise acquire homes for their personal occupation and, for that purpose, to grant such loans, execute such guarantees and indemnities, and enter into such agreements or arrangements, as the board thinks fit;”.

8 Section eighty-eight of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from paragraph (f) thereof the words “Justices Procedure Act 1919” and substituting therefor the words “Justices Act 1959”.

Recovery of fees, charges, &c.

9 Section one hundred and sixty-three of the Principal Act is amended by omitting therefrom the words “Justices Procedure Act 1919” and substituting therefor the words “Justices Act 1959”.
