MUNICIPAL BORROWING.

No. 65 of 1953.

AN ACT relating to the borrowing of money by municipal councils for the purposes of permanent works.
[16 November, 1953.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the Municipal Borrowing Act 1953.

Exercise of borrowing powers under local Acts.

2—(1) Where, by a local Act passed before the commencement of this Act (whether passed before or after the commencement of the Local Government Act 1906), the council of a municipality is specially authorized to construct any works of a permanent character—

(a) those works shall be deemed to be permanent works within the meaning of section one hundred and ninety-two of the Local Government Act 1906; and

(b) the council may borrow money for the purposes of those works in accordance with Part XII. of the Local Government Act 1906 in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising any power to borrow money that is conferred on it by the local Act.

(2) The provisions of sections fourteen to twenty-four of the Local Bodies Loans Act 1881 do not apply to the borrowing of moneys for the purposes of any works to which this section relates.

(3) Nothing in a local Act to which this section relates limits, qualifies, or derogates from the powers conferred on the council of a municipality by Part XII. of the Local Government Act 1906.

(4) Where by a local Act to which this section relates, the council of a municipality is authorized to borrow money for any purposes other than the construction of works of a permanent character, those purposes shall be deemed to be part of the works the construction of which is authorized by that Act, and the foregoing provisions of this section shall be construed accordingly.
