MENTAL HOSPITALS.

No. 35 of 1960.

AN ACT to amend the Mental Hospitals Act 1858.
[10 October 1960.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Mental Hospitals Act 1960.

(2) The Mental Hospitals Act 1858, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section nineteen of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:—

Case of patient exhibiting insanity when in confinement as prisoner.

“19—(1) If a person confined in a prison or other place of confinement under—

- (a) sentence of death;
- (b) sentence of imprisonment; or
- (c) any criminal or civil process, appears to be an insane person, the Sheriff, or his deputy by his order, may inquire, with the aid of two medical practitioners, as to the insanity of that person.

(2) If the Sheriff and the two medical practitioners certify that that person is an insane person, the Attorney-General may, on receipt of their certificate, by warrant under his hand, direct that that person be removed to such hospital as the Attorney-General appoints.

(3) A person so removed by a warrant under subsection (2) of this section shall remain in custody in the appointed hospital until the medical officer of the hospital certifies to the Attorney-General that that person has become of sound mind.

(4) On receipt of a certificate under subsection (3) of this section, the Attorney-General may, by warrant under his hand, order the superintendent of the hospital—

(a) if the person to whom it relates is subject to be continued in custody, to have that person taken back to the prison or other place of confinement from whence he came; or

(b) if that person is not so subject, to discharge him.

(5) The powers of the Attorney-General under this section may be exercised on his behalf by any Minister of State.”
