

'law of the State' means—

- (a) an Act and any other law in force in the State;
- (b) an instrument (including regulations) having effect by virtue of such an Act; and
- (c) an instrument having effect by virtue of an instrument to which paragraph (b) of this definition relates."

TASMANIAN SANATORIUM.

No. 5 of 1972.

AN ACT to amend the Tasmanian Sanatorium Act 1950. [5 July 1972.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Tasmanian Sanatorium Act 1972.

(2) The Tasmanian Sanatorium Act 1950, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 After section four of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

Termination of trust for Tasmanian Chest Hospital.

"4A—(1) If the Governor is satisfied that adequate and convenient facilities exist elsewhere for the treatment of persons who might otherwise be expected to be treated in or to resort to the institution referred to in section four he may, by order, declare that the trust referred to in subsection (1) of that section is to cease on such date as is specified in that behalf in the order; and on that date that trust ceases and is thereafter of no further effect.

"(2) On the cessation of the trust referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the powers and duties of the Minister and his successors under section four cease and all their estate or interest in the land in Creek Road, New Town, referred to in that section shall, subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, be deemed to have been then surrendered to and vested in Her Majesty.

“(3) The land that is vested in Her Majesty under this section may be used for such purposes, or disposed of or otherwise dealt with in such manner and on such terms and conditions, as the Governor may approve.

“(4) When land is vested in Her Majesty under this section the Minister or his successor for the time being shall surrender to the Recorder of Titles the certificate of title issued under subsection (4) of section four in relation thereto and the Recorder shall cancel that certificate and shall make such cancellations, corrections, or entries in the register book as he thinks necessary or desirable as a consequence of that vesting.

“(5) After the cessation of the trust referred to in subsection (1) of this section any property held by Her Majesty for the purposes of the institution so referred to may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Governor may approve.”

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES.

No. 6 of 1972.

AN ACT to amend the Mental Health Services Act 1967 [5 July 1972.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Mental Health Services Act 1972. Short title and citation.

(2) The Mental Health Services Act 1967 is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section twenty-one of the Principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (9) the following subsections:— Conditions of service, &c., of officers of mental health service.

“(9A) Regulations under this Act may authorize the Treasurer to make advances to officers of the mental health service for the purpose of assisting them to purchase motor vehicles for use in connection with the performance of their duties, and may prescribe the maximum amount of any such advance, and the terms upon and subject to which it may be made, and may regulate and control generally the making and repayment of any such advances.

“(9B) Regulations made for the purposes of this section may require an application made under any provision of those regulations to be supported by a statutory declaration.”