2 The Principal Act is hereby amended—

I. By expunging the definition of “owner” in Section Three and substituting therefor the following definition:—

“ ‘Owner,’ when used with reference to a motor vehicle, means the person registered in the record of motor vehicles kept in accordance with Section Eleven as the owner of such vehicle, and, when used with reference to a public vehicle, includes every person who is solely or in partnership with any other person concerned (otherwise than merely as the driver) in keeping, using, or letting such vehicle for hire; and, in the case of a corporation, includes the secretary or manager thereof:”

II. By inserting after Section Fourteen the following new section:—

“14a—(1)³³ No person shall let for hire any motor vehicle to be driven by any person other than himself or his servant unless he is the holder of a licence under this Act for that purpose in respect of such vehicle.

Penalty: Ten Pounds.

“(2) The provisions of Subsection (1) hereof shall not apply to the letting of any motor-vehicle under a hire-purchase agreement made in good faith for the purchase of such vehicle.

“(3) Any such licence as is referred to in Subsection (1) may be issued upon payment of the fee of Five Pounds and upon such conditions as may be prescribed.”

III. By deleting the words “Five Pounds” in the sixth line of Subsection (2A) of Section Fifteen, and substituting therefor the words “Two Pounds Ten Shillings”.

3 Section Three of the Traffic Act, 1930, is hereby repealed.

4 The Principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after the word “place” at the end of Subsection (1) of Section Fifty-eight thereof the words “but, where such discretion is exercised so that no application in respect of any area, route, or place is granted by the Committee, the decision of the Committee shall be subject to review by a police magistrate, who may direct that any specified application shall be granted or may remit the matter for reconsideration by the Committee, with a direction that one or more applications in respect of such area, route, or place shall be granted.”
