AN ACT to incorporate the Tasmanian Institution for the Blind, Deaf, and Dumb, and to make Provision for its Administration.

A.D.
1933.

[22 December, 1933.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania; by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

I This Act may be cited as “The Tasmanian Blind, Deaf, and Dumb Institution Act, 1933.” Short title.

Tasmanian Blind, Deaf, and Dumb Institution.

A.D. 1933.

Incorporation.

2—(1) The Tasmanian Institution for the Blind, Deaf, and Dumb, as at present existing, shall be deemed to have been constituted under this Act and be a corporate body under that name, and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and be capable of suing and being sued in all courts in its corporate name, and shall be clothed with all the usual attributes of a corporate body.

(2) The said Institution is hereinafter called “the Institution.”

Constitution.

3—(1) The constitution set forth in Schedule (1) shall be the constitution of the Institution, but the same may be modified, altered, or amended as hereinafter provided.

(2) Upon a resolution, duly passed by a majority of the members of the Institution present at a general meeting, duly convened as prescribed, in favour of any such modification, alteration, or amendment as aforesaid, the Governor, by proclamation, may modify, alter, or amend the said constitution in conformity with such resolution, if, in his opinion, it is desirable so to do, and thereupon the constitution as so modified, altered, or amended shall become the constitution of the Institution.

Vesting of property.

4 The land described in Schedule (2) shall be and is hereby vested in the Institution for the purposes of this Act.

Regulations and by-laws.

5—(1) The Governor may make regulations under and for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Board may make rules and by-laws for the purposes of this Act, and may—

- I. Regulate the procedure of the Board:
 - II. Provide for meetings of members of the Institution and regulate the procedure in relation thereto: and
 - III. Provide for and regulate the management, control, and supervision of the Institution and its buildings and property and all matters relating thereto; and to the admission, care, control, maintenance, treatment, and instruction of all persons admitted thereto.
