No. LXI.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Administration of the Estate of Deceased Persons. [17th December, 1858.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the law whereunder the real and personal assets of deceased persons are administered should be amended Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Victoria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say)

Preamble.

I. When any person shall after the thirty-first day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight die seised of or entitled to any estate or interest in any land or other hereditaments which shall at the time of his death be charged with the payment of any sum or sums of money by way of mortgage and such person shall not by his will or deed or other document have signified any contrary or other intention the heir or devisee to whom such land or hereditaments shall descend or be devised shall not be entitled to have the mortgage debt discharged or satisfied out of the personal estate or any other real estate of such person but the land or hereditaments so charged shall as between the different persons claiming through or under the deceased person be primarily liable to the payment of all mortgage debts charged on the whole thereof Provided always that nothing herein contained shall affect or diminish any right of the mortgagee on such lands or hereditaments to obtain full payment or satisfaction of his mortgage debt either out of the personal estate of the person so dying as aforesaid or otherwise Provided also that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any person claiming under or by virtue of any will or document already made or to be made before the first day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

Mortgaged lands to be charged in the hands of the heir or devisee with payment of mortgage debt.
