

VICTORIA.

ANNO TERTIO

EDWARDI SEPTIMI REGIS.

No. 1814.

An Act relating to certain Land granted as a Site for a Market Place in the City of Ballarat.

[5th February, 1903.]

WHEREAS by a Deed Poll bearing date the eighteenth day of August One thousand eight hundred and eighty-two under the hand of His Excellency the Marquis of Normanby Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria and its dependencies with the seal of the said colony affixed Her Majesty in order to provide a site for a market place in the City of Ballarat did grant unto the Mayor Councillors and Citizens of the said city and to their successors all that piece of land in the said deed mentioned, subject to certain conditions, provisions, and declarations therein mentioned, and amongst others that the land so granted should at all times thereafter be maintained and used for a site for a market place for the purpose of holding markets and offices and conveniences connected therewith and for no other purpose whatsoever: And whereas of the land so granted the portion described in the Schedule to this Act is not leased to any person under the provisions of the Act No. 937 and is not used for or applied to or required for the purpose for which the same was granted: And whereas the Council of the City of Ballarat desire that the said portion of the land so granted should be revested in His Majesty and set apart for the purpose of a court house and offices and conveniences connected therewith being constructed, maintained, and used on the said portion: And whereas it is expedient that such portion should be so revested and set apart for the purpose aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty
