occupiers than one in any house or premises let in several apartments or lodgings or otherwise, the occupier of that particular part of such premises in which any dog is kept or harboured or permitted to live or remain shall be deemed to be the owner of such dog, and the burden of proof that any such person is not the owner thereof shall for the purposes of this Act be upon such person.

Owner of dog to register.

4. Every owner of a dog shall on or before the first day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and thereafter within fifteen days from and after the first day of March in each and every year or within six months from the day on which such dog was littered register such dog.

Registration how made.

5. Registration shall consist in delivering the description hereinafter mentioned and in paying to the registration officer a registration fee of five shillings. When a registration is made after the first day of September in any year, one half only of the registration fee shall be payable in respect of such registration.

Registration where to be made.

6. Registration shall, if the place where it is intended to keep such dog be within a municipal district, be effected at the office of the council of such municipal district or at such other convenient place or places within such municipal district as the council thereof may appoint; but if the place where it is intended to keep such dog be not within a municipal district, then such registration shall be effected at the court of petty sessions held nearest thereto.

Description of dog to be delivered to registration officer. First Schedule.

7. Every person registering a dog shall at the time of such payment deliver or send to the registration officer a description of such dog embracing the several particulars mentioned in the First Schedule hereto, with a declaration thereunder written of the truth thereof under the hand of the owner of such dog or of some person authorized by such owner in that behalf. Every registration shall be deemed to be in force from the day upon which the same has been so made until the last day of the month of February then next ensuing and no longer. The registration officer shall in every municipal district be the municipal clerk thereof or some other officer in that behalf appointed by the council thereof, and shall in every place not within a municipal district be the clerk of the court of petty sessions held nearest to the place where such dog is kept.

Penalty for false description.

8. If any person knowingly make a false declaration respecting any of the particulars contained in the said description or wilfully insert in or omit from or wilfully cause or permit to be inserted in or omitted from such description any matter or thing whatsoever contrary to or for the purpose of concealing the truth, he shall forfeit a sum of not less than Ten shillings nor more than Forty shillings.

9. Every

9. Every registration officer to whom such registration fee is paid shall enter in a book kept by him for that purpose and in the receipt to be given therefor a registered number for every dog so registered and shall deliver or send a receipt for the said fee in the form in the Second Schedule hereto, and any registration officer who on receipt of the proper registration fee and on being required refuses or neglects to deliver or send such receipt shall forfeit the sum of Ten shillings for each offence.

Receipt to be given.

Second Schedule.

10. Every registration officer shall exhibit in his office during office hours for public inspection a correct list arranged in alphabetical order of the names of all persons who during the year then current have registered any dog at such office and the number of dogs registered by each person together with the registered number of such dogs. Any person applying for the particulars of any dog so registered or for the name of the registered owner thereof or for a certified copy of the receipt hereinbefore mentioned shall be entitled to receive such information and certified copy on payment of a fee of One shilling, and every registration officer who on being required so to do and after tender of the said fee refuses or neglects to give such particulars of the name of such registered owner or a copy certified by such registration officer of such receipt shall forfeit the sum of Ten shillings for each offence.

List of registered dogs to be exhibited.

11. In any proceeding under this Act for the non-registration of any dog it shall not be necessary for the informant to establish the fact of non-registration, but the proof of due registration shall lie on the defendant and the said receipt or a certified copy thereof shall be admissible in evidence for the defendant in proof of such registration and shall for the purpose of such proceedings be prima facie evidence in proof that the person therein described as the owner of any dog is the owner of such dog.

Burden of proof.

12. Every person who after the first day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and after the expiration of fifteen days from the first day of March in each and every year thereafter is the owner of any unregistered dog above the age of six months shall on conviction thereof forfeit and pay in respect of each such unregistered dog a fine of not less than Five shillings nor more than Ten shillings in addition to the registration fee, and on a second or subsequent conviction thereof before the last day of the month of February next following in respect of the same or any other dog he shall forfeit and pay in respect of each such unregistered dog a fine of not less than Ten shillings nor more than Forty shillings in addition to such fee.

Penalty for non-registration.

13. Every registered dog except foxhounds beagles and greyhounds engaged in public coursing matches shall have a collar round its neck with the words "Registered at" specifying the place of its registration and the name and address of its owner engraved or stamped legibly thereon. If a registered dog with a collar round its neck neck is found wandering at large, it may be seized by the police or by the officers of the municipality duly authorized in that behalf or any person may seize such dog and forthwith hand it over to such police or municipal officer of the municipal district to be dealt with under the provisions of this Act, and notice in writing of such seizure shall within forty-eight hours next following such seizure be by the person making the same delivered or sent by the post to the address on the said collar. If within forty-eight hours after the delivery of such notice or the time at which the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of post the registered owner do not reclaim such dog and pay to the registration officer the sum of Two shillings and sixpence for the cost of keeping such dog, such dog may without any liability in respect thereof be sold by auction or destroyed without cruelty by some speedy means.

Dogs found at large to be seized.

14. Every dog found wandering at large without a collar round its neck engraved or stamped as aforesaid whether such dog is registered or not shall be seized by the police or by the officers of the municipal district duly authorized in that behalf in which such dog is so found or may be seized by any person and forthwith handed over to such police or officers of the municipal district to be dealt with under the provisions of this Act; and if within forty-eight hours after such seizure such dog be not claimed and the sum of Two shillings and sixpence for the cost of keeping such dog together with twice the registration fee in case such dog is not then registered paid to the registration officer, it may be sold by public auction or destroyed in manner aforesaid.

Appointment of officer by council of municipal district to enforce this Act.

15. The council of every municipality shall carry out the provisions of this Act, and every such council shall appoint a proper officer whose duty it shall be to enforce under the direction of the council the provisions of this Act and to seize and destroy subject to the provisions of this Act any unregistered dog found wandering at large unaccompanied by its owner or some other person in any street road thoroughfare or public place within their municipality.

Penalty on municipality neglecting to enforce this Act.

16. If the council of any municipality fail to perform any duty imposed upon it by this Act, any ratepayer of such municipality may complain in writing to the municipal clerk of such district. If within twenty-eight days from the service of such complaint on such municipal clerk the performance of such duty be not in good faith commenced, such council shall forfeit to such ratepayer together with full costs of suit the sum of Twenty pounds for each week commencing from the date of the service of such complaint as aforesaid during which default has continued, and the same may be recovered by suit in a county court; but no such suit shall be commenced without the written consent of a law officer or after the expiration of six months from the date of the service of such complaint as aforesaid.

17. If

17. If any registered dog save as herein excepted be found in any public place without a collar round its neck engraved or stamped as aforesaid or having a name or address that is incorrect engraved or stamped thereon, the owner of such dog shall forfeit a sum of not less than Five shillings nor more than Forty shillings. If any unregistered dog be found wearing a collar which purports to exhibit thereon the name of a place of registration, the owner of such dog shall in addition to the penalty for not registering such dog to which he is liable under this Act forfeit a sum of not less than Ten shillings nor more than Five pounds. If a police constable or any officer of a municipality seize or destroy or cause to be seized or destroyed any dog otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he shall forfeit a sum of not less than Twenty shillings nor more than Five pounds, and if the dog is destroyed shall in addition pay to the owner the full value of such dog.

Penalties.

18. If any person not being the owner wilfully remove the collar from the neck of a registered dog he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding Five pounds to be recovered before any court having competent jurisdiction.

Penalty for removing collar.

19. The owner or occupier of any field paddock yard or other place enclosed by a fence in which any sheep cattle or poultry are confined or any person acting under the authority of such owner or occupier may without incurring any liability in respect thereof shoot or otherwise destroy any dog found at large therein whether the owner of such dog be or be not known. Provided that it shall not be lawful to shoot or otherwise destroy as aforesaid any dog accompanied by and under the control of its owner or other person.

Owner or occupier of enclosed land may destroy any trespassing dogs not under control.

20. If any dog rush at attack worry or chase any person or any horse cattle or sheep the owner of such dog shall on proof thereof forfeit and pay a penalty of not more than Five pounds, and notwithstanding the recovery of such penalty such person or the owner of such horse cattle or sheep if he be the complainant may recover from the owner of such dog a sum of money as compensation for any actual damage occasioned by such dog. The fact that such dog was immediately before such rushing at attacking worrying or chasing in company with and had been seen habitually closely following the person complained of or issued from the premises occupied by such person shall be prima facie evidence that the person so complained of is the owner of such dog. It shall not be necessary to prove a previous mischievous propensity in such dog or the owner's knowledge of such previous mischievous propensity or that such attacking worrying or chasing or any damage occasioned thereby was attributable to neglect on the part of such owner.

Owner permitting dog to accompany him liable for all damage occasioned by such dog.
