Nos 3632
s. 13, 4191
s. 2.

- (1) An executor of a sole or last surviving proving executor of a testator is the executor of that testator.

This provision shall not apply to an executor who does not prove the will of his testator, and, in the case of an executor who on his death leaves surviving him some other executor of his testator who afterwards proves the will of that testator, it shall cease to apply on such probate being granted.

- (2) So long as the chain of such representation is unbroken, the last executor in the chain is the executor of every preceding testator.
- (3) The chain of such representation shall be broken by—
- (a) an intestacy; or
 - (b) the failure of a testator to appoint an executor; or
 - (c) the failure to obtain probate of a will;

but shall not be broken by a temporary grant of administration if probate is subsequently granted.

- (4) Every person in the chain of representation to a testator—
- (a) shall have the same rights in respect of the estate of that testator as the original executor would have had if living; and
 - (b) shall be to the extent to which the estate of that testator has come to his hands, answerable as if he were an original executor.

No. 3632 s. 14.

18. Right of proving executors to exercise powers

Where probate is granted to one or some of two or more persons named as executors, whether or not power is reserved to the others or other to prove, all the powers which are by law conferred on the personal representative may be exercised by the proving executor or executors for the time being and shall be as effectual as if all the persons named as executors had concurred therein.

37A. *Spouse may obtain intestate's interest in matrimonial home*¹⁰

(1) In this section—

"matrimonial home" means a residence which was an intestate's principal residence at the time of his or her death;

"residuary estate" has the same meaning as it has in section 38(4).

(2) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, if—

(a) a person dies intestate as to an interest in his or her matrimonial home; and

(b) the person leaves a spouse—the spouse may elect to acquire the interest at its value at the date of the intestate's death.

(3) The election must be made—

(a) if the spouse is a personal representative—within 3 months of the grant of administration; or

(b) if the spouse is not a personal representative—within 3 months of the spouse being given notice under sub-section (4).

(4) If—

- (a) a person dies intestate as to an interest in his or her matrimonial home; and
- (b) his or her spouse is not the person's personal representative—the personal representative must, within 30 days of the grant of administration, give the spouse a written notice informing the spouse of his or her rights under this section.

- (5) An election must be given in writing—
 - (a) if the spouse is a personal representative—to the registrar; and
 - (b) if the spouse is not a personal representative—to the personal representative who sent the spouse the notice requiring the election.

- (6) If an intestate is also survived by a child or other issue—

- (a) any notice under sub-section (4); and
- (b) any election under sub-section (5)(a)— must show the sworn value of the intestate's interest in the matrimonial home at the time of the intestate's death as fixed by a valuer.

- (7) If the spouse elects to acquire the intestate's interest in the matrimonial home—

- (a) his or her share of the residuary estate is to be reduced by the value of the interest; and
- (b) if the value of the interest is more than the amount of his or her share of the residuary estate, the spouse must pay the difference into the intestate's estate—
 - (i) before the distribution of the residuary estate; or

S. 37A(6)

No. 91/1994
s. 36(1).

- (ii) within 12 months of the making of the election—whichever occurs first.
- (8) If the spouse elects to acquire the intestate's interest in the matrimonial home, the personal representative—
 - (a) must transfer the interest to the spouse within a reasonable time—
 - (i) of receiving notice of the election; or
 - (ii) if sub-section (7)(b) applies, of the spouse paying the amount of the difference into the estate; and
 - (b) in any event, must transfer the interest before the distribution of the residuary estate.
- (9) A spouse may acquire an interest under this section even though—
 - (a) he or she is a trustee; or
 - (b) he or she is a minor.
- (10) If a matrimonial home is part of a larger property and the intestate's interest in the matrimonial home cannot be severed from the intestate's interest in the larger property without subdividing that property, a reference to the matrimonial home in this section is to be read as a reference to that property.
- (11) Despite sub-section (10), if a matrimonial home is part of a farm, a reference to the matrimonial home in this section is to be read as a reference to the entire farm.

38. Trust for sale on intestacy

- (1) On the death of a person intestate as to any real or personal estate, such estate shall be held by his personal representatives—

- (a) as to the real estate (including chattels real) upon trust to sell the same; and
 - (b) as to the personal estate upon trust to call in sell and convert into money such part thereof as may not consist of money—with power to postpone such sale and conversion for such a period as the personal representatives, without being liable to account, think proper, and so that any revisionary interest shall not be sold until it falls into possession, unless the personal representatives see special reason for sale, and so also that, unless required for purposes of administration owing to want of other assets, personal chattels shall not be sold except for special reason.

- (2) Out of the net money to arise from the sale and conversion of such real and personal estate (after payment of costs), and out of the ready money of the deceased (so far as not disposed of by his will, if any), the personal representative shall pay all such funeral testamentary and administration expenses debts and other liabilities as are properly payable thereout having regard to the rules of administration contained in this Division and out of the residue of the said money the personal representative shall set aside a fund sufficient to provide for any pecuniary legacies bequeathed by the will (if any) of the deceased.
 - (3) Pending the distribution of the whole or any part of the estate of the deceased, the personal representatives may invest the residue of the said money, or so much thereof as may not have been distributed, in any investments for the time being authorized by statute for the investment of trust money, with power, at the discretion of the personal representatives, to change such investments for others of a like nature.

- (4) The residue of the said money and any investments for the time being representing the same, including (but without prejudice to the trust for sale) any part of the estate of the deceased which may be retained unsold and is not required for the administration purposes aforesaid, is in Division six of this Part referred to as the "residuary estate" of an intestate.
- (5) The income, including net rents and profits of real estate (including chattels real) after payment of rates taxes rent costs of insurance repairs and other outgoings properly attributable to income, of so much of the estate of the deceased as is not disposed of by his will (if any) or is not required for the administration purposes aforesaid, may, however such estate is invested, as from the death of the deceased, be treated and applied as income.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of any creditor of the deceased or the rights of the Crown in respect of duties.
- (7) Where the deceased leaves a will, this section has effect subject to the provisions contained in the will.
- (8) In this section "real and personal estate" means every beneficial interest (including rights of entry and reverter) of the intestate in real and personal estate which (otherwise than in right of a power of appointment or of the testamentary power conferred by Statute to dispose of entailed interests) he could if of full age and capacity have disposed of by his will.

No. 3632 s. 34.

39. Administration of assets

- (1) Where the estate of a deceased person is not solvent, his real and personal estate shall be administered in accordance with the rules set out in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Act.

(2) Where the estate of a deceased person is solvent his real and personal estate shall subject to Rules of Court and the provisions hereinafter contained as to charges on property of the deceased and to the provisions (if any) contained in his will be applicable towards the discharge of the funeral testamentary and administration expenses debts and liabilities payable thereout in the order mentioned in Part II of the Second Schedule to this Act.

(3) Nothing in this Part shall affect or be construed as affecting the provisions of the Probate Duty Act 1962.

amended by
No. 7332 s. 2.

40. Charges on property of deceased to be paid primarily out of the property charged

No. 3632 s. 35.

(1) Where a person dies possessed of or entitled to or under a general power of appointment (including the statutory power to dispose of entailed interests) by his will disposes of an interest in property which at the time of his death is charged with the payment of money whether by way of mortgage charge or otherwise (including a lien for unpaid purchase money) and the deceased has not by will deed or other document signified a contrary or other intention the interest so charged shall as between the different persons claiming through the deceased be primarily liable for the payment of the charge; and every part of the said interest according to its value shall bear a proportionate part of the charge on the whole thereof.

(2) Such contrary or other intention shall not be deemed to be signified—

(a) by a general direction for the payment of debts or of all the debts of the testator out of his personal estate or his residuary real and personal estate or his residuary real estate; or

(b) by a charge of debts upon any such estate—unless such intention is further signified by words expressly or by necessary implication referring to all or some part of the charge.

- (3) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of a person entitled to the charge to obtain payment or satisfaction thereof either out of the other assets of the deceased or otherwise.

No. 3632 s. 36.

41. Effect of assent or conveyance by personal representative

- (1) A personal representative may assent to the vesting in any person who (whether by devise bequest devolution appropriation or otherwise) is entitled thereto either beneficially or as a trustee or personal representative of any estate or interest in real estate (including chattels real) to which the testator or intestate was entitled or over which he exercised a general power of appointment by his will including the statutory power to dispose of entailed interests and which devolved upon the personal representative.
- (2) The assent shall operate to vest in that person the estate or interest to which the assent relates and unless a contrary intention appears the assent shall relate back to the death of the deceased.
- (3) The statutory covenants implied by a person being expressed to convey as personal representative, may be implied in an assent in like manner as in a conveyance by deed.
- (4) An assent to the vesting of a legal estate shall be in writing signed by the personal representative and shall name the person in whose favour it is given and shall operate to vest in that person the legal estate to which it relates; and an assent not in writing or not in favour of a named person shall not be effectual to pass a legal estate.

- (5) A conveyance of a legal estate by a personal representative to a purchaser shall not be invalidated by reason only that the purchaser may have notice that all the debts liabilities funeral and testamentary or administration expenses duties and legacies of the deceased have been discharged or provided for.
- (6) An assent or conveyance given or made by a personal representative shall not except in favour of a purchaser of a legal estate prejudice the right of the personal representative or any other person to recover the estate or interest to which the assent or conveyance relates or to be indemnified out of such estate or interest against any duties debt or liability to which such estate or interest would have been subject if there had not been any assent or conveyance.
- (7) A personal representative may as a condition of giving an assent or making a conveyance require security for the discharge of any such duties debt or liability but shall not be entitled to postpone the giving of an assent merely by reason of the subsistence of any such duties debt or liability if reasonable arrangements have been made for discharging the same; and an assent may be given subject to any estate by way of mortgage.
- (8) In this section "purchaser" means a purchaser for money or money's worth.
- (9) This section shall apply to assents and conveyances made after the eighteenth day of December One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine whether the testator or intestate died before on or after such date.

(10) In the case of land under the Transfer of Land Act 1958 an assent may be given or made by the personal representative registered as proprietor by a transfer in the form prescribed under that Act with such necessary modifications as the case requires.

No. 3632 s. 37.

42. Validity of conveyance not affected by revocation of representation

(1) All conveyances of any interest in real or personal estate made to a purchaser either before or after the commencement of this Act by a person to whom probate or letters of administration have been granted are valid notwithstanding any subsequent revocation or variation either before or after the commencement of this Act of the probate or administration.

No. 3632 s. 38.

43. Right to follow property etc.

(1) An assent or conveyance by a personal representative to a person other than a purchaser shall not prejudice the rights of any person to follow the property to which the assent or conveyance relates or any property representing the same into the hands of the person in whom it is vested by the assent or conveyance or of any other person (not being a purchaser) who may have received the same or in whom it may be vested.

(2) Notwithstanding any such assent or conveyance the Court may on the application of any creditor or other person interested—

- (a) order a sale exchange mortgage charge lease payment transfer or other transaction to be carried out which the court considers requisite for the purpose of giving effect to the rights of the persons interested;
 - (b) declare that the person not being a purchaser in whom the property is vested is a trustee for those purposes;
 - (c) give directions respecting the preparation and execution of any conveyance or other instrument or as to any other matter required for giving effect to the order;
 - (d) make any vesting order or appoint a person to convey in accordance with the provisions of the Trustee Act 1958.
- (3) This section shall not prejudice the rights of a purchaser or a person deriving title under him.

44. Powers of management

No. 3632 s. 39.

- (1) In dealing with the real and personal estate of the deceased his personal representatives shall for purposes of administration have—
 - (a) the same powers and discretions including power to raise money by mortgage with or without a power of sale or charge (whether or not by deposit of documents) as a personal representative had before the first day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventy-three with respect to personal estate vested in him; and
 - (b) all the powers discretions and duties conferred or imposed by law on trustees holding land upon an effectual trust for sale; and
 - (c) all the powers conferred by statute on trustees for sale and so that every contract entered into by a personal representative shall be binding on and be enforceable against and by the personal representative for the time being of the deceased, and may be carried into effect or be varied or rescinded by him and in the case of a contract entered into by a predecessor as if it had been entered into by himself.

- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any person to require an assent or conveyance to be made.

No. 3632 s. 40.

45. Powers of personal representative for raising money etc.

- (1) For giving effect to beneficial interests the personal representative may limit or demise land for a term of years absolute with or without impeachment for waste to trustees on usual trusts for raising or securing any principal sum and the interest thereon for which the land or any part thereof is liable and may limit or grant a rentcharge for giving effect to any annual or periodical sum for which the land or the income thereof or any part thereof is liable.
- (2) In this section "term of years absolute" has the same meaning as in the Settled Land Act 1958.

No. 3632 s. 41.

46. Powers of personal representative as to appropriation

- (1) The personal representative may appropriate any part of the estate including things in action of the deceased in the actual condition or state of investment thereof at the time of appropriation in or towards satisfaction of any legacy bequeathed by the deceased or of any other interest or share in his property whether settled or not as to the personal representative seems just and reasonable according to the respective rights of the persons interested in the property of the deceased:

Provided that—

- (a) an appropriation shall not be made under this section so as to affect prejudicially any specific devise or bequest;
- (b) an appropriation of property whether or not being an investment authorized by law or by the will (if any) of the deceased for the investment of money subject to the trust shall not (save as hereinafter mentioned) be made under this section except with the following consents—
 - (i) when made for the benefit of a person absolutely and beneficially entitled in possession the consent of that person;
 - (ii) when made in respect of any settled legacy share or interest the consent of either the trustee thereof if any (not being also the personal representative) or the person who is for the time being entitled to the income.

s. 143(2).

If the person whose consent is so required as aforesaid is a minor the consent shall be given on his behalf by his parents or parent testamentary or other guardian or if there is no such parent or guardian by the Court on the application of his next friend;

- (c) no consent (save of such trustee as aforesaid) shall be required on behalf of a person who may come into existence after the time of appropriation or who cannot be found or ascertained at that time;
- (d) if independently of the personal representative there is no trustee of a settled legacy share or interest and no person of full age and capacity entitled to the income thereof no consent shall be required to an appropriation in respect of such legacy share or interest provided that the appropriation is of an investment authorized as aforesaid.

- (2) Any property duly appropriated under the powers conferred by this section shall thereafter be treated as an authorized investment and may be retained or dealt with accordingly.
- (3) For the purposes of such appropriation the personal representative may ascertain and fix the value of the respective parts of the real and personal estate and the liabilities of the deceased as he thinks fit and shall for that purpose employ a duly qualified valuer in any case where such employment may be necessary; and may make any conveyance (including an assent) which may be requisite for giving effect to the appropriation.
- (4) An appropriation made pursuant to this section shall bind all persons interested in the property of the deceased whose consent is not hereby made requisite.
- (5) The personal representative shall in making the appropriation have regard to the rights of any person who may thereafter come into existence or who cannot be found or ascertained at the time of appropriation and of any other person whose consent is not required by this section.
- (6) This section shall not prejudice any other power of appropriation conferred by law or by the will (if any) of the deceased and shall take effect with any extended powers conferred by the will (if any) of the deceased and where an appropriation is made under this section in respect of a settled legacy share or interest the property appropriated shall remain subject to all trusts for sale and powers of leasing disposition and management or varying investments which would have been applicable thereto or to the legacy share or interest in respect of which the appropriation is made if no such appropriation had been made.

- (7) If after any real estate (including chattels real) has been appropriated in purported exercise of the powers conferred by this section the person to whom it was conveyed disposes of it or any interest therein then in favour of a purchaser the appropriation shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with the requirements of this section and after all requisite consents (if any) had been given.
- (8) In this section a settled legacy share or interest includes any legacy share or interest to which a person is not absolutely entitled in possession at the date of the appropriation also an annuity, and "purchaser" means a purchaser for money or money's worth.
- (9) This section shall apply whether the deceased died intestate or not and shall extend to property over which a testator exercises a general power of appointment including the statutory power to dispose of entailed interests and shall authorize the setting apart of a fund to answer an annuity by means of the income of that fund or otherwise.

47. Power to appoint trustees of minor's property

- (1) Where a minor is absolutely entitled under the will or on the intestacy of a person (in this subsection called "the deceased") to a devise or legacy, or to the residue of the estate of the deceased, or any share therein, and such devise, legacy, residue or share is not under the will (if any) of the deceased, devised or bequeathed to trustees for the minor, the personal representatives of the deceased may appoint a trustee company or

99A. Protection of personal representative against certain claims

- (1) No action shall lie against the personal representative by reason of his having distributed any part of the estate, and no application or order under this Part shall disturb the distribution, if it was properly made by the personal representative for the purpose of providing for the maintenance support or education of the widow widower or any child of the deceased totally or partially dependent on the deceased immediately before the death of the deceased, whether or not the personal representative had notice at the time of the distribution of any application or intended application under this Part in respect of the estate.
- (2) No person who may have made or may be entitled to make an application under this Part shall be entitled to bring a proceeding against the personal representative by reason of his having distributed any part of the estate if the distribution was properly made by the personal representative after the person (being of full legal capacity) has notified the personal representative in writing that the person either—

- (a) consents to the distribution; or
 - (b) does not intend to make any application that would affect the proposed distribution.
- (3) No action shall lie against the personal representative by reason of his having distributed any part of the estate if the distribution was properly made by the personal representative after the expiration of six months after the grant of probate of the will or of letters of administration (as the case may be) and without notice of any application or intended application under this Part in respect of the estate.
- (4) For the purposes of this section notice to a personal representative of intention to make any application under this Part shall be in writing signed by the applicant or his legal practitioner and shall lapse and be incapable of being renewed, and the personal representative may act as if he had not received the notice, unless, before the expiration of three months after the day on which he first receives notice of intention to make the application, the personal representative receives notice in writing that the application has been made to the Court:

S. 99B inserted by No. 16/1986 s. 17(b).

99B. Definition

In this Part, "Court" means the Supreme Court and, in relation to an estate the value of which does not exceed the jurisdictional limit of the County Court, means the Supreme Court or the County Court.

S. 100 inserted by No. 9044 s. 3(b).

100. Application for order to exclude section 13(3)(c)

S. 100(1) amended by No. 110/1986 s. 140(2).

- (1) Where but for the operation of section 13(3)(c) of the Wills Act 1958 a person would be entitled to any property or to exercise any power to appoint in relation to any property that person may subject to or in accordance with the rules apply to the Court for an order that he be entitled under the will as if section 13(3)(c) had not applied in relation to him.
- (2) Subject to sub-section (3) an application under this section must be made within six months after the date of the grant of probate of the will or the letters of administration with the will annexed (as the case may be).

- (3) The Court may extend the time for the making of an application under this section whether or not the time appointed under sub-section (2) has expired but no application shall be allowed after the final distribution of the estate and no order under this section shall affect the distribution of any part of the estate made prior to the making of an application.
- (4) Notice of an application under sub-section (2) or (3) shall be served on the personal representative within such time as is prescribed by the rules.

251. Power to tenants in tail in possession to dispose of land by specific devise or bequest

- (1) A tenant in tail of full age shall have power to dispose by will by means of a devise or bequest referring specifically either to the property or to the instrument under which it was acquired or to entailed property generally—
- (a) of lands of which he is tenant in tail in possession at his death; and
- (b) of lands to be sold where the money arising from the sale is subject to be invested in the purchase of lands to be settled so that if purchased he would at his death have been tenant in tail in possession thereof; and

Administration and Probate Act 1958

Act No. 6191/1958

(c) of money subject to be invested in the purchase of lands of which if it had been so invested he would have been tenant in tail in possession at his death—in like manner as if, after barring the entail, he had (either at law or in equity as the case may be) been tenant in fee-simple or absolute owner thereof at his death; but subject to and in default of any such disposition by will such lands or money shall devolve in the same manner as if this section or any corresponding previous enactment had not been passed.

(2) This section shall not extend to a tenant in tail after possibility of issue extinct and shall not render any interest which is not disposed of by the will of the tenant in tail liable for his debts or other liabilities.

(3) This section shall apply only to wills executed after the thirty-first day of December One thousand nine hundred and eighteen, or confirmed or republished after such date.
