- (2) The trustees shall not be bound to obtain any report as to the value of the land or other property to be comprised in such mortgage, or any advice as to the making of the loan, and shall not be liable for any loss which may be incurred by reason only of the security being insufficient at the date of the mortgage.

would have incurred if this Act or any corresponding previous enactment had not been passed, in case he permits any such money, valuable consideration or property to remain in the hands or under the control of the barrister and solicitor or banker for a period longer than is reasonably necessary to enable the barrister and solicitor or banker (as the case may be) to pay or transfer the same to the trustee.

- (2) A trustee acting or paying money in good faith under or in pursuance of any power of attorney shall not be liable for any such act or payment by reason of the fact that at the time of the act or payment the person who gave the power of attorney was subject to any disability or bankrupt or dead, or had done or suffered some act or thing to avoid the power if this fact was not known to the trustee at the time of his so acting or paying:

Provided that—

No. 5770 s. 37.

- (1) Where any property is held by trustees in trust for any person for any interest whatsoever, whether vested or contingent, then, subject to any prior interests or charges affecting that property—
  - (a) during the minority of any such person, if his interest so long continues, the trustees may, at their sole discretion, pay to his parent or guardian (if any) or otherwise apply for or towards his maintenance, education, advancement, or benefit, the whole or such part (if any) of the income of that property as may in all the circumstances be reasonable, whether or not there is—
    - (i) any other fund applicable to the same purpose; or

S. 37(1)(b)

No. 9075
s. 5(2).

(ii) any person bound by law to provide for his maintenance or education; and

(b) if such person on attaining the age of eighteen years has not a vested interest in such income, the trustees shall thenceforth pay the income of that property and of any accretion thereto under sub-section (2) of this section to him, until he either attains a vested interest therein or dies, or until failure of his interest:

Provided that, in deciding whether the whole or any part of the income of the property is during a minority to be paid or applied for the purposes aforesaid, the trustees shall have regard to the age of the minor and his requirements and generally to the circumstances of the case, and in particular to what other income (if any) is applicable for the same purposes; and where trustees have notice that the income of more than one fund is applicable for those purposes, then, so far as practicable, unless the entire income of the funds is paid or applied as aforesaid or the Court otherwise directs, a proportionate part only of the income of each fund shall be so paid or applied.

amended by
No. 9075
s. 5(2).

(2) During the minority of any such person, if his interest so long continues, the trustees shall accumulate all the residue of that income in the way of compound interest by investing the same and the resulting income thereof from time to time in authorized investments, and shall hold those accumulations as follows:

S. 37(2)(a) amended by Nos 9075
s. 5(1), 9427
s. 5.

(a) If any such person—

---

- (i) attains the age of eighteen years, or marries under that age, and his interest in such income during his minority or until his marriage is a vested interest; or
  - (ii) on attaining the age of eighteen years or on marriage under that age becomes entitled to the property from which such income arose in fee-simple, absolute or determinable, or absolutely, or for an entailed interest—

the trustees shall hold the accumulations in trust for such person absolutely, but without prejudice to any provision with respect thereto contained in any settlement by him made under any statutory powers during his minority, and so that the receipt of such person after marriage, and though still a minor, shall be a good discharge; and

- (b) In any other case the trustees shall, notwithstanding that such person had a vested interest in such income, hold the accumulations as an accretion to the capital of the property from which such accumulations arose, and as one fund with such capital for all purposes, and so that if such property is settled land, such accumulations shall be held upon the same trusts as if the same were capital money arising therefrom—

but the trustees may, at any time during the minority of such person if his interest so long continues, apply those accumulations, or any part thereof, as if they were income arising in the then current year.

- (3) This section shall apply in the case of a contingent interest only if the limitation or trust carries the intermediate income of the property, but it applies to a future or contingent legacy by the parent of, or a person standing in loco parentis to, the legatee, if and for such period as, under the general law, the legacy carries interest for the maintenance of the legatee, and in any such case as last aforesaid the rate of interest shall (if the income available is sufficient, and subject to any rules of court to the contrary) be Five per centum per annum. Where in the case of a contingent interest the limitation or trust would, but for the operation of a protective trust (whether created or statutory) carry the intermediate income of the property, that limitation or trust shall for the purposes of this sub-section be deemed notwithstanding the protective trust to carry the intermediate income<sup>10</sup>.

amended by
s. 3(1).

- (4) This section shall apply to a vested annuity in like manner as if the annuity were the income of property held by trustees in trust to pay the income thereof to the annuitant for the same period for which the annuity is payable, save that in any case accumulations made during the minority of the annuitant shall be held in trust for the annuitant or his personal representatives absolutely.
- (5) This section shall not apply where the instrument (if any) under which the interest arises came into operation before the commencement of this Act, but in cases of instruments coming into operation before such commencement section thirty-four of the Trusts Act 1915 (as amended by section nine of the Real Property Act 1918) and section thirty-five of the Trusts Act 1915 or section thirty-one of the Trustee Act 1928 or section thirty-seven of the Trustee Act 1953 (as the case requires) shall notwithstanding the repeal of those Acts continue to apply to such instruments.

- (2) The power conferred by this section may be exercised whether the person is entitled absolutely or contingently on his attaining any specified age or on the occurrence of any other event, or subject to a gift over on his death under any specified age or on the occurrence of any other event, and notwithstanding that the interest of the person so entitled is liable to be defeated by the exercise of a power of appointment or revocation, or to be diminished by the increase of the class to which he belongs.

- (2) The money arising by the sale shall be capital money arising under this Act, and shall be paid, invested, or applied and otherwise dealt with in like manner in all respects as by this Act directed with respect to other capital money arising under this Act, or may be invested in the purchase of other chattels of the same or any other nature, which, when purchased, shall be settled and held on the same trusts, and shall devolve in the same manner as the chattels sold.
