

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO SECUNDO,

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 9.

An Act to amend an Act intituled "An Act to regulate the Establishment of Banking Companies in the Colony of Western Anstralia; and to enable the Proprietors of such Companies to sue and be sued in the name of any one of their Public Officers."

WHEREAS by the first part of the first section of the Act passed in the 8th Wm. IV., No. 1, intituled "An Act to regulate the establishment of Banking Companies in the colony of Western Australia, and to enable the Proprietors of such companies to sue and be sued in the name of any one of their Public Officers," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any number of persons, united in copartnership, to carry on the trade and business of Bankers in Western Australia, and to make and issue their Bills or Notes payable on demand or otherwise; and whereas it has been deemed expedient to alter the same, by limiting to a certain extent the value or amount of each Bill or Note respectively: Be it therefore enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any such copartnership or company to make or issue any Bill or Note payable on demand or otherwise, for any smaller sum than Twenty Shillings; and that every other enactment, provision, clause, matter, and thing, contained in the said Act, shall remain in full force and effect, as if this Act had not been passed.

Preamble.

Expedient to amend the 8th Wm. IV., No. 1.

It shall not be lawful for any Banking Company to issue notes of less amount than £1.
