

DISCHARGED SERVICEMEN'S BADGES.

No. 58 of 1967.

AN ACT relating to the Wearing of Badges issued by certain Associations of Discharged Servicemen.

[Assented to 5th December, 1967.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Discharged Servicemen's Badges Act, 1967. Short title.

2. In this Act, "discharged servicemen's association" means a body specified in the Schedule of this Act. Interpretation.

Limitation on the wearing of badges.

3. (1) A person who is not a member of that association shall not, without lawful excuse, wear a badge, or a colourable imitation of a badge, issued by a discharged servicemen's association for the purpose of identifying its members.

Penalty: Forty dollars.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to a person who, having been a member of a discharged servicemen's association, has been excluded from membership, by operation of its rules, unless he has been served, either personally or by pre-paid registered post, with notice of the fact that he has been so excluded.

Saving.

4. Nothing in this Act affects the operation of the Returned Servicemen's Badges Act, 1953.
