FINAL JUDGMENT OF SMELLIE J

Solicitors:

Grove Darlow & Partners, DX 145, Auckland for Plaintiffs
Simpson Grierson Butler White, DX 92, Auckland Central for First & Second Defendants

I indicated in the final paragraph of my second interim judgment delivered on 17th November 1994 that unless I was advised that settlement had been reached or the parties jointly requested a further delay, I would enter final judgment after seven days.

There has been no advice of settlement or request for further delay.

I therefore order as follows:-

1. The monies presently held in the trust account of the defendants' solicitors are to be paid into the High Court and invested in an interest bearing account.
2. The capital sum paid in and the accumulating interest will then remain under the control of the Court and subject to its direction until the dispute between the parties has been resolved either by a judgment of this Court or by agreement.
3. Leave is reserved to any party to apply further.
