HEARING at AUCKLAND on the 7th day of September 1989

APPEARANCES

 in person
for dealer

DECISION

The purchaser in this case had a decision from the Small Claims Tribunal in Henderson awarding him an amount of just in excess of $2,600 in respect of the same matter that was in dispute before the Tribunal. The Tribunal doubted that it had the jurisdiction to hear the complaint and would have dismissed it on that basis. However, the purchaser withdrew his claim and he indicated that although the licensee had applied for a rehearing of the Henderson matter, he wished to rely on the previous judgment. The purchaser's claim is therefore dismissed.
