An Act to empower the sale of the Hakataramea Public Hall site and to repeal the Hakataramea Public Hall Act 1900

Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

Preamble

Whereas the Hakataramea Public Hall and the land upon which it was situated, being the land described in the Schedule, were by the Hakataramea Public Hall Act 1900 vested in trustees for an association known as the Hakataramea Hall Association: And whereas the said hall fell into disrepair and had to be demolished: And whereas the trustees of the Hakataramea Hall Association, in the interests of the district of Hakataramea, wish to dispose of the said land.

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Hakataramea Public Hall Trustees Empowering Act 1983.

2 Trustees deemed to be duly elected or appointed

Notwithstanding any irregularity in their appointment or election or in the appointment or election of any previous trustee, the Hakataramea Public Hall Trustees holding or purporting to hold office immediately before the commencement of this Act, namely William Richard Charles Cleave, of Kurow, retired, Robert James Lloyd Cochrane of Kurow, farmer, Patricia Margaret Wall of Hakataramea, married woman, Kenneth Emslie of Hakataramea, shearing contractor, Phyllis Ann Emslie of Hakataramea, married woman, and William Ogilvy Ross of Hakataramea, farmer, shall be deemed to have been duly elected or appointed under the Hakataramea Public Hall Act 1900.

3 Power to sell

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Hakataramea Public Hall Act 1900 or in any other Act or in any rule of law but subject to subsection (2), the Hakataramea Public Hall Trustees are hereby empowered to sell the land described in the Schedule; and on any such sale the land shall be freed and discharged from all express or implied trusts, reservations, and restrictions imposed by the Hakataramea Public Hall Act 1900.
- (2) The said land shall not be sold at a price lower than its Government valuation at the time of sale.

4 Application of proceeds

The proceeds of the sale of the said land, after the deduction and payment of all costs and expenses relating to and incidental to the sale, shall be applied by the said trustees in their absolute discretion for purposes commemorating the district of Hakataramea, or for charitable purposes (as defined in section 38 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957) within the district of Hakataramea or the surrounding districts, or for both such purposes.

5 Repeal

The Hakataramea Public Hall Act 1900 is hereby repealed.

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the Hakataramea Public Hall Trustees Empowering Act 1983. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 4 May 1983, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
