The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

This Act is the Statutes Amendment Act 2016.

2 Commencement

- (1) Part 23 comes into force 90 days after the date on which this Act receives the Royal assent.
- (2) The rest of this Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

Part 1

Accident Compensation Act 2001

3 Principal Act

This Part amends the Accident Compensation Act 2001 (the principal Act).

4 Section 139 amended (Corporation's duties to secure independence of reviewer)

- (1) Replace section 139(1) with:
 - (1) The Corporation must not engage as a reviewer a person who is currently—
 - (a) employed by the Corporation; or
 - (b) engaged by the Corporation to make decisions on claims in a capacity other than that of reviewer; or
 - (c) employed or engaged by a subsidiary of the Corporation.
- (2) Repeal section 139(2).
- (3) In section 139(3), replace “the reviewer’s contract” with “a contract with a reviewer”.

Part 2

Airport Authorities Act 1966

5 Principal Act

This Part amends the Airport Authorities Act 1966 (the principal Act).

6 Section 9 amended (Bylaws)

In section 9(1)(ff), replace “the insertion of suitable advertisements in a newspaper circulating in the district where the airport is situated” with “publicising the sale in what the authority considers to be a fair and reasonable manner”.

Part 3

Bail Act 2000

7 Principal Act

This Part amends the Bail Act 2000 (the principal Act).

8 Section 14 amended (Exercise of discretion when considering bail pending appeal)

(1) Replace section 14(1) with:

(1) This section applies if an appellant—

(a) is appealing his or her conviction or sentence, or both; and

(b) is—

(i) in custody; or

(ii) in a home detention residence subject to a sentence of home detention.

(1A) The court must not grant bail to the appellant unless it is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that it would be in the interests of justice in the particular case to do so.

(2) In section 14(3), replace “subsection (1)” with “subsection (1A)”.

9 Section 53 amended (Granting of bail to appellant in custody or on home detention pending appeal to District Court presided over by District Court Judge)

Replace section 53(1) with:

(1) This section applies if an appellant—

(a) is appealing his or her conviction or sentence, or both, to the District Court presided over by a District Court Judge; and

(b) is—

(i) in custody; or

- (ii) in a home detention residence subject to a sentence of home detention.

10 Section 54 amended (Granting of bail to appellant in custody or on home detention pending appeal to High Court)

Replace section 54(1) with:

- (1) This section applies if an appellant—
 - (a) is appealing his or her conviction or sentence, or both, to the High Court; and
 - (b) is—
 - (i) in custody; or
 - (ii) in a home detention residence subject to a sentence of home detention.

11 Section 55 amended (Granting of bail to appellant in custody or on home detention pending appeal to Court of Appeal or Supreme Court)

Replace section 55(1) with:

- (1) This section applies if an appellant—
 - (a) is appealing his or her conviction or sentence, or both, to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court; and
 - (b) is—
 - (i) in custody; or
 - (ii) in a home detention residence subject to a sentence of home detention.

Part 4

Children, Young Persons, and Their Families Act 1989

12 Principal Act

This Part amends the Children, Young Persons, and Their Families Act 1989 (the principal Act).

13 Section 113B amended (Effect of special guardianship order)

In section 113B(2)(a) (as inserted by section 22 of the Children, Young Persons, and Their Families (Vulnerable Children) Amendment Act 2014), replace “section 121(2)(c) or (d)” with “section 121(2)(d) or (e)”.

14 Section 140 amended (Agreements for extended care of children and young persons by chief executive, iwi social service, etc)

In section 140(3) (as inserted by section 27(4) of the Children, Young Persons, and Their Families (Vulnerable Children) Amendment Act 2014), delete “convened for the purpose”.

15 Section 145 amended (Agreement not to be made without approval of family group conference)

(1) In the heading to section 145, after “made”, insert “, extended, or terminated”.

(2) Replace section 145(2) (as amended by section 29(2) and (3) of the Children, Young Persons, and Their Families (Vulnerable Children) Amendment Act 2014) and (3) with:

(2) A care and protection co-ordinator must convene or reconvene a family group conference if it is proposed that—

- (a) an agreement be entered into under section 140(1), 141(2), or 142(2); or
- (b) an agreement entered into under section 140(1)(d), 141(2), or 142(2) be extended; or
- (c) an agreement entered into under section 140(1)(d), 141(2), or 142(2) be terminated other than in the manner specified in the agreement in accordance with section 146(1)(c).

(3) If a family group conference has been convened or reconvened other than under subsection (2) in relation to a child or young person, the conference may consider a proposal referred to in subsection (2) concerning the child or young person as if the conference had been convened or reconvened under that subsection.

(4) To the extent that they are relevant, sections 20 to 36, with all necessary modifications, apply to the convening or reconvening of a family group conference under subsection (2).

Part 5 Commodity Levies Act 1990

16 Principal Act

This Part amends the Commodity Levies Act 1990 (the principal Act).

17 New section 2A inserted (Transitional, savings, and related provisions)

After section 2, insert:

2A Transitional, savings, and related provisions

The transitional, savings, and related provisions set out in Schedule 1AA have effect according to their terms.

18 Section 13 replaced (Levy orders to expire after 6 years)

Replace section 13 with:

13 Levy orders in force no more than 6 years unless extended

- (1) A levy order is in force for a period of 6 years and, unless extended under subsection (2) or sooner revoked, is revoked at the end of that 6-year period.
- (2) The Governor-General may extend the period for which a levy order is in force by a specified period of not more than 5 years by Order in Council made—
 - (a) on the recommendation of a Minister, given after complying with the requirements of section 5 (except section 5(1)(b)); and
 - (b) at least 12 months before the levy order would otherwise be revoked.
- (3) The Governor-General may make multiple Orders in Council under subsection (2) in respect of the same levy order.
- (4) Section 12 applies to a levy order that is extended under subsection (2) as if the extension is the making of the order.

19 New Schedule 1AA inserted

After section 26, insert the Schedule 1AA set out in Schedule 1 of this Act.

Part 6

Community Trusts Act 1999

20 Principal Act

This Part amends the Community Trusts Act 1999 (the principal Act).

21 Section 11 amended (Regional identity of community trusts)

In section 11(2), replace “sections 17” with “sections 16A, 17,”.

22 New section 16A inserted (Adjustment to areas or regions of adjoining community trusts)

Before section 17, insert:

16A Adjustment to areas or regions of adjoining community trusts

- (1) The trustees of 2 or more adjoining community trusts may, in accordance with a resolution passed by not less than 75% of the trustees of each trust, submit to the Minister a scheme to adjust the areas or regions of the community trusts by adjusting the adjoining boundaries of those community trusts.
- (2) A scheme submitted under subsection (1) must—

- (a) state the names of the community trusts:
 - (b) state the names of the trustees of the community trusts:
 - (c) state the proposed adjustment to the areas or regions of the community trusts:
 - (d) have annexed to it the trust deeds establishing the community trusts:
 - (e) have annexed to it the proposed changes to the trust deeds establishing the community trusts:
 - (f) have annexed to it any proposed transfer of property, rights, assets, or liabilities between the community trusts to reflect the proposed adjustment to the areas or regions:
 - (g) contain a summary of any submissions made under subsection (4):
 - (h) contain such other matters as may be appropriate:
 - (i) be dated.
- (3) The trustees of the community trusts must supply to the Minister any additional information relating to the scheme required by the Minister.
- (4) Before submitting a scheme to the Minister under subsection (1), the trustees of each community trust must—
- (a) give notice in the Gazette and in 1 or more principal newspapers circulating in the area or region of the trust—
 - (i) stating that the trustees of the trust intend to submit the scheme to the Minister; and
 - (ii) specifying details of the scheme; and
 - (iii) stating that any person residing in the area or region of the trust may, within 28 days after the last publication of the notice, make written submissions to the trustees regarding the scheme; and
 - (b) have regard to any submissions made within that period.
- (5) The Governor-General may, on the advice of the Minister, by Order in Council, approve a scheme to adjust the adjoining boundaries of the trusts so that the areas or regions of 2 or more adjoining community trusts are adjusted to areas or regions described in the order.
- (6) On a date specified in the order,—
- (a) the areas or regions of the community trusts are adjusted to the areas or regions described in the proposed changes to the trust deeds submitted to the Minister under subsection (2)(e); and
 - (b) property, rights, assets, or liabilities proposed to be transferred under the scheme vest in the trustees of the community trusts in any manner proposed in subsection (2)(f), and are held by them on and subject to the trusts contained in the trust deeds.

Part 7 Companies Act 1993

23 Principal Act

This Part amends the Companies Act 1993 (the principal Act).

24 New section 209C inserted (Alternative obligations for FMC reporting entities)

After section 209B, insert:

209C Alternative obligations for FMC reporting entities

- (1) This section applies, in respect of a company (company A) that is an FMC reporting entity, on and after the date on which FMC regulations impose obligations on any company in relation to the way in which it must make its annual report available (including by electronic means).
- (2) If company A is an issuer of regulated products within the meaning of the FMC Act that is required to comply with those FMC regulations, sections 209 to 209B do not apply to an annual report to which the FMC regulations apply.
- (3) If company A is not an issuer of regulated products within the meaning of the FMC Act that is required to comply with those FMC regulations, the board of the company may elect, in respect of an annual report, to comply with the FMC regulations instead of with sections 209 to 209B (as if company A were an issuer of that type).
- (4) If subsection (3) applies,—
 - (a) if the board complies with the FMC regulations, there is no liability for breach of sections 209 to 209B; and
 - (b) if the board fails to comply with the FMC regulations, every director is liable for a breach of sections 209 to 209B (except to the extent that the board complies with those sections), but is not liable under the FMC Act.
- (5) In this section,—

annual report—

 - (a) means a report prepared under section 208; and
 - (b) includes a concise annual report (if any)

FMC Act means the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013

FMC regulations means regulations made under section 543(1)(e) of the FMC Act that impose obligations on any FMC reporting entities in relation to the way in which an entity must make its annual report available under either or both of sections 96 and 97 of the FMC Act (including by electronic means)

FMC reporting entity has the same meaning as in section 451 of the FMC Act.

- (6) Regulations may be made under section 543(1)(e) of the FMC Act for the purpose of this section.

Part 8 Conservation Act 1987

25 Principal Act

This Part amends the Conservation Act 1987 (the principal Act).

77 Section 94A amended (Creation of enduring power of attorney)

(1) Replace section 94A(4A) with:

(4A) If 2 people appoint each other as attorney, the witness to the signature of one person as donor (witness A) does not fail to be independent for the purposes of subsection (4) by reason only that the witness to the signature of the other person as donor—

- (a) is a lawyer or legal executive in the same firm, or an officer or employee of the same trustee corporation, as witness A; or
- (b) is the same person as witness A, if, having regard to the matters listed in subsection (7)(a) to (b), the witness is satisfied that witnessing both signatures does not constitute more than a negligible risk of a conflict of interest.

(2) After section 94A(6), insert:

(6A) If regulations made under section 112(bab) prescribe a form of standard explanation for any of the matters required to be explained to a donor under subsection (6), the witness to the donor's signature may give the explanation by—

- (a) giving a copy of the form to the donor; and
- (b) following any instructions in the form for giving a verbal explanation to the donor; and
- (c) if the form and the instructions do not cover all of the matters in subsection (6), using other appropriate means to fulfil all of the requirements of that subsection.

(3) In section 94A(7), after “prescribed form”, insert “for the certificate referred to in subsection (2)(b)”.

(4) After section 94A(7)(a), insert:

(ab) in the case of an enduring power of attorney signed by the donor after the commencement of this paragraph, the witness believes on reasonable grounds that the donor—

- (i) understands the nature of the instrument; and
- (ii) understands the potential risks and consequences of the instrument; and
- (iii) is not acting under undue pressure or duress; and

- (5) In section 94A(7)(c), after “applies”, insert “or, if subsection (4A)(b) applies, the witness is satisfied that no more than a negligible risk of a conflict of interest arises”.

78 New section 95A inserted (Notice revoking earlier enduring power of attorney)

After section 95, insert:

95A Notice revoking earlier enduring power of attorney

- (1) If an enduring power of attorney states that it revokes an earlier enduring power of attorney and both powers of attorney are of the same kind, they both continue to have effect until the earlier power of attorney is revoked by notice given in the manner set out in subsection (2) or ceases to have effect by any of the other ways listed in section 106(1).
- (2) Notice revoking an earlier power of attorney is given when a copy of the later power of attorney is given to the attorney or attorneys appointed under the earlier power of attorney and, to avoid doubt, the notice may be given by a person other than the donor, for example, the donor’s lawyer or one of the attorneys appointed under the later power of attorney, including in the event that the donor becomes mentally incapable.
- (3) This section applies to any enduring power of attorney, whether executed before or after this section comes into force.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, of the same kind, in relation to 2 enduring powers of attorney, means—
- (a) that both powers of attorney relate to—
 - (i) the donor’s property; or
 - (ii) the donor’s personal care and welfare; or
 - (b) if the earlier power of attorney relates to the donor’s property or the donor’s personal care and welfare, or both, the later power of attorney relates to both the donor’s property and the donor’s personal care and welfare.

79 Section 99A amended (Attorney’s duty to consult)

- (1) In section 99A(1)(b), after “that matter”, insert “; and”.
- (2) After section 99A(1)(b), insert:
- (c) any other attorney appointed by the donor under the enduring power of attorney (other than a successive attorney whose appointment has not taken effect); and
 - (d) any other attorney appointed by the donor under another enduring power of attorney (other than a successive attorney whose appointment has not taken effect).

- (3) After section 99A(7), insert:
- (8) To avoid doubt, if the same attorney must be consulted under subsection (1)(c) or (d) and subsection (7), the requirements of both subsections must be met in relation to that attorney.

80 Section 99D amended (Medical certification of incapacity)

Replace section 99D(1) with:

- (1) A certificate of the donor's mental incapacity under this Part must—
- (a) contain the prescribed information; or
 - (b) if the certificate is issued outside New Zealand, be in a form acceptable to the competent authority of the State concerned.

81 Section 106 amended (Circumstances in which enduring power of attorney shall cease to have effect)

- (1) In the heading to section 106, replace “shall cease” with “ceases”.
- (2) After section 106(1)(a), insert:
- (ab) it is revoked by notice given in the manner set out in section 95A to the attorney or attorneys; or
- (3) After section 106(1)(b), insert:
- (ba) the donor, by notice in writing to the attorney, revokes the appointment of the attorney while mentally capable of doing so; or
 - (bb) in the case of an enduring power of attorney that appoints more than 1 attorney with joint but not several authority, the donor, by notice in writing to one of the attorneys, revokes the appointment of that attorney while mentally capable of doing so; or
- (4) In section 106(1)(d) and (e), replace “becomes a special or committed patient under the Mental Health Act 1969” with “becomes subject to compulsory treatment or a special patient under the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992”.
- (5) After section 106(1)(e), insert:
- (ea) in the case of an enduring power of attorney that appoints more than 1 attorney with several authority or with joint and several authority, the last remaining attorney—
 - (i) has his or her appointment revoked by the donor under section 106A(1); or
 - (ii) dies, is adjudged bankrupt, becomes subject to compulsory treatment or a special patient under the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992, is subject to a personal order or a property order, or otherwise becomes incapable of acting; or

- (6) In section 106(2), replace “the provisions of paragraphs (c) to (f) of subsection (1) shall apply” with “subsection (1)(ba) to (f) applies”.

82 New section 106A inserted (Revocation of appointment of attorneys with several authority)

After section 106, insert:

106A Revocation of appointment of attorneys with several authority

- (1) If an enduring power of attorney appoints more than 1 attorney with several authority or with joint and several authority, the donor may, by notice in writing to 1 or more of the attorneys, revoke the appointment of that attorney or those attorneys while mentally capable of doing so.
- (2) To avoid doubt, if a donor revokes the appointment of 1 or more attorneys under subsection (1), the enduring power of attorney remains in effect if there is at least 1 remaining attorney.

83 Section 112 amended (Regulations)

- (1) After section 112(ba), insert:

(bab) prescribing a form of standard explanation for the purpose of explaining the effects and implications of an enduring power of attorney to a donor (which may include requirements for the content of the explanation and the manner in which it is to be given) under section 94A(6) and (6A):

- (2) Replace section 112(bc) with:

(bc) prescribing information required for certificates for the purposes of any medical examination or assessment under Part 9:
