1947, No. 31

AN ACT to provide for the Restoration of Licences for the Sale of Intoxicating Liquor in Portion of the District formerly known as the Masterton No-licence District. Title.
[18th November, 1947]

WHEREAS at the licensing poll held on the twenty-seventh day of November, nineteen hundred and forty-six, a poll was taken in the Masterton no-licence district on the question whether licences should be restored in that district and the determination of the electors of the district was in favour of the restoration of licences: And whereas on the twenty-eighth day of May, nineteen hundred and forty-seven, pursuant to the Masterton Licensing Emergency Regulations 1947, polls of the electors of the three portions of the district defined in those regulations were taken on the proposal that trade in alcoholic liquors in those portions of the district should be conducted by trusts representative of the local inhabitants: And whereas on the taking of the last-mentioned polls the determination of the electors of that portion of the district which is described in the Preamble.

Schedule to this Act (the said portion being hereinafter referred to as the Masterton Licensing Trust district) was in favour of the trust proposal and the determination of the electors of the remaining portions of the said district was against the trust proposal: And whereas it is desirable to make suitable provision for the restoration of licences in the said remaining portions of the district:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Masterton Licensing Restoration Act, 1947.

Electoral districts of Pahiatua and Wairarapa declared to be licensing districts.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the electoral districts of Pahiatua and Wairarapa, as constituted at the passing of this Act, are hereby declared to be, and to have been as from the twenty-seventh day of February, nineteen hundred and forty-seven, licensing districts for the purposes of the Licensing Act, 1908.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. IV, p. 234

1945, No. 10

(2) The provisions of this section shall operate notwithstanding anything contained in subsection three of section ten of the Electoral Amendment Act, 1945, or in the report of the Representation Commission made on the seventh day of June, nineteen hundred and forty-six, pursuant to section six of that Act.

REFER 19

No. 8.
Licensing Committees not to have jurisdiction over Masterton Licensing Trust district.

3. No Licensing Committee constituted under the Licensing Act, 1908, shall have any jurisdiction in respect of any part of the Masterton Licensing Trust district.

Electors of Masterton Licensing Trust district not to vote for Licensing Committee.

4. No elector of the licensing district of Pahiatua or of the licensing district of Wairarapa who is enrolled as an elector in respect of a residential address within any part of the Masterton Licensing Trust district shall be entitled to vote at any election of a Licensing Committee under the Licensing Act, 1908.

Pahiatua Licensing Committee to have jurisdiction over former Masterton no-licence district, except Trust district.

5. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply with respect to that portion of the licensing district of Pahiatua, other than the Masterton Licensing Trust district, which is situated within the boundaries of the district heretofore known as the Masterton no-licence district.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section six of this Act, the Licensing Committee for the time being in office for the licensing district of Pahiatua shall have in respect of that portion of its district to which this section applies the powers and functions conferred by section eleven of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, on Licensing Committees constituted under section ten of that Act, and the provisions of the said section eleven shall, so far as applicable and with the necessary modifications, apply accordingly as if the portion of the district to which this section applies were a licensing district.

See Reprint of Statutes,
Vol. IV, p. 350

6. (1) In the application of section eleven of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, to that portion of the licensing district of Pahiatua to which section five of this Act applies, the following provisions shall apply:—

Modification, for purposes of this Act, of s. 11 of Licensing
Amendment
Act, 1910.

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection one of the said section eleven, the Licensing Committee may grant any licence to which that section applies either at any annual licensing meeting or at any quarterly licensing meeting held before the day appointed for the annual meeting in the month of June, nineteen hundred and forty-eight, or may hold any special meeting at any time before that day and grant any such licence at that special meeting. For the purposes of this paragraph the provisions of the Licensing Act, 1908, shall apply to every such special meeting in all respects as if it were a quarterly licensing meeting:

(b) All references in subsection two of the said section eleven to the district shall be deemed to be references to that portion of the licensing district of Pahiatua to which section five of this Act applies:

(c) In determining applications for licences the Licensing Committee shall, after complying with the provisions of subsection three of the said section eleven, have regard to the desirability in the public interest of re-establishing in civil life discharged servicemen within the meaning of Part I of the Rehabilitation Act, 1941:

1941, No. 25

(d) In determining applications for transfers of licences the Licensing Committee shall have regard to the desirability in the public interest of re-establishing in civil life such discharged servicemen as aforesaid.

(2) The Director of Rehabilitation under the Rehabilitation Act, 1941, or any officer in the service of the Crown authorized by the Director in that behalf, shall be entitled to make representations and to produce evidence to the Licensing Committee with respect to the subject-matter of any application for a licence or for a transfer of a licence under this Act.
