1969, No. 2

An Act to make provision as to the operation of the law in relation to Nauru, and persons and things in any way belonging to or connected with Nauru, in view of Nauru's having become a Republic within the Commonwealth
[22 July 1969]

WHEREAS on the 31st day of January 1968, the Trust Territory of Nauru became an independent sovereign Republic known as the Republic of Nauru: And whereas the Republic of Nauru has become a member of the Commonwealth with effect on and after that date:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Republic of Nauru Act 1969.

(2) This Act shall be deemed to have come into force on the 31st day of January 1968.

2. Existing law to apply as if Nauru were part of Her Majesty's dominions—(1) All existing law—that is to say, all law which, whether it is a rule of law or a provision of an Act of any Parliament or a provision of any other enactment or instrument whatsoever, has come into force or been passed or made before the commencement of this Act—shall, until provision to the contrary is made by the authority having power to alter that law, have the same operation in relation to Nauru, and to persons and things in any way belonging to or connected with Nauru, as it would have had if Nauru were part of Her Majesty's dominions.

(2) This section extends to law of, or any part of, New Zealand or any of the territories referred to in section 3 of this Act.

3. Application of Act to Niue and Tokelau Islands—

(1) This Act shall be in force in the following territories:

(a) Niue:

(b) The Tokelau Islands.

(2) The First Schedule to the Niue Act 1966 is hereby amended by adding the following words:

“1969, No. 2—

The Republic of Nauru Act 1969 | The whole Act.”
