

ANALYSIS

Title 1. Short Title and commencement 2. Qualification of electors	3. Conduct of elections 4. Disqualification of members of trust
---	---

1991, No. 52

An Act to amend the Sale of Liquor Act 1989

[28 June 1991

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Sale of Liquor Amendment Act 1991, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Sale of Liquor Act 1989.

(2) This Act shall come into force on the 1st day of July 1991.

2. Qualification of electors—Section 193 of the Sale of Liquor Act 1989 is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting from subsection (1) the words “an elector” in the first place where they appear, and substituting the words “a residential elector”; and

(b) By inserting in subsection (2), after the word “those”, the word “residential”.

3. Conduct of elections—Section 194 of the Sale of Liquor Act 1989 is hereby amended by repealing subsections (2) to (4), and substituting the following subsections:

“(2) If a trust district is situated wholly within the district of any local authority, the roll of residential electors for that local authority’s district shall be the roll of electors for elections of members of the licensing trust.

“(3) In any other case the rolls of residential electors for the districts that are situated wholly or partly within the trust district, or within any ward of a divided trust district, shall be the rolls of electors for elections of members of the licensing trust.

“(4) It shall be the duty of the principal administrative officer of the local authority of the district within which the trust district is situated, or the principal administrative officer of the local authority of every district situated wholly or partly within the trust district, to indicate on the roll of residential electors for the district of that local authority, by appropriate words, abbreviations, or marks, the names of the persons entitled to vote at elections of members of the licensing trust; and, if the trust district is divided into wards, the ward in respect of which every person is entitled to vote shall also be shown.”

4. Disqualification of members of trust—Section 200 (1) of the Sale of Liquor Act 1989 is hereby amended by repealing paragraph (a), and substituting the following paragraph:

“(a) A person who is not a residential elector of the trust district or, in the case of the election or appointment of any member for a ward of a divided trust district, is not a residential elector entitled to vote at elections of members for that ward:”.

This Act is administered in the Department of Justice.
