A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Auctioneers Act, 1891."

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 5 | 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Auctioneers Act Amendment Act, 1898." | Short title. |
| 10 | 2. It shall be the duty of an auctioneer when offering property for sale by auction to distinctly name the vendor and also the last bidder, whether the property is actually sold or not. | Auctioneer to name vendor and last bidder. |
| 15 | 3. It shall not be lawful for the vendor of property offered for sale by auction to himself bid for the same, or to directly or indirectly employ any person so to do, or for the auctioneer to knowingly receive any such bid: | Vendor shall not bid, or employ agent so to do. |
| 20 | 4. Every person who commits any breach of any of the provisions of this Act is liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds; and in the case of an auctioneer, if he is convicted of a second offence, the convicting Court, in addition to imposing the penalty, may, in its discretion, forfeit his license. | Saving. Penalties. |

By Authority: JOHN MACKAY, Government Printer, Wellington.—1898.
