A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to empower the Ashburton County Council to make Bye-laws for the Protection Title. and Administration of certain Waterworks in the County of Ashburton.

WHEREAS the Ashburton County Council has by virtue of the Preamble. powers vested in it in that behalf constructed a system of Waterworks within the County of Ashburton for the purpose of supplying the rate-payers and residents of the said County with water for domestic, agricultural, and pastoral purposes, and the said Council may hereafter extend the said system :

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to confer upon the said Council power to make Bye-laws for protecting the said Waterworks against trespassers and securing the proper administration thereof :

10 BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand and by the authority of the same as follows :

1 The Short Title of this Act is "The Ashburton County Council Short Title. Empowering Act, 1882 "

2 In this Act and any Bye-laws made thereunder, if not incon- Interpretation. sistent with the context,—

15 "Council" means the County Council of the County of Ashburton.

whether the said works be constructed and maintained wholly or in part by the Council or by corporations, companies, or private individuals with the consent and under the authority of the Council.

Diversion of water without consent of Council.

3 The Council may from time to time make, alter, and repeal Bye-laws for preventing the diversion of the water from Waterworks without the consent of the Council, and may fix a penalty of not exceeding Twenty Pounds for every day during which such diversion shall be suffered to continue, the amount of such penalty to be in the discretion of the Court inflicting the same. 5

Council may make Bye-laws.

4 The Council may also from time to time make, alter and repeal Bye-laws on the following subjects :— 10

- (a) To prevent the obstruction of Waterworks :
- (b) To prevent the pollution of water in Waterworks :
- (c) To prevent the riding and driving of animals, the driving of vehicles, and the conveying of machinery and other material across water-races except at the appointed crossings : 15
- (d) To punish the owners of animals for permitting the same to trespass upon Waterworks : 20
- (e) To punish persons for interfering with dams, reservoirs, headworks, and buildings connected with Waterworks without the consent of the Council :
- (f) To prevent bathing in reservoirs and other part of Waterworks : 25
- (g) To protect Rangers and other persons employed by the Council in connection with Waterworks in the discharge of their duties and for this purpose to empower all such persons to enter upon private lands :
- (h) To prevent the widening and deepening of water-races, or the alteration of the course thereof, without the consent of the Council : 30
- (i) To prevent trespasses upon water-races on roads :
- (j) To regulate the use and supply of water from Waterworks, and fixing the rates and charges to be paid for water supplied. All such rates and charges may be recovered by the Council as a debt due to it in any Court of competent jurisdiction : 35
- (k) Generally, to prevent trespasses, nuisances, and obstructions to Waterworks, and to make all such provision as to the Council may seem necessary or expedient for the protection and proper management of Waterworks. 40

Penalty for breach of Bye-Laws.

5 Any and every of such Bye-Laws may provide a penalty for every breach thereof of an amount which shall be in the discretion of the Court inflicting the same, and shall in no case exceed Fifty Pounds. 45

Council may recover damages.

6 In addition to the penalty, the Council may, on every breach of any Bye-law made under the provisions of this Act, recover from the offender the amount of the damage sustained by reason of his interference with Waterworks. Such damage shall be recoverable in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and in the case of diversion of water from Waterworks shall include the value of the water so drawn 50
