A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to authorize the Sale of a Reserve within the City of Auckland, and to change the Purpose of a Reserve in the Vicinity of the said City. Title.

WHEREAS by the operation of "The Abolition of Provinces Act, 1875," the lands described in the First Schedule hereto have become vested in Her Majesty the Queen in trust as a site and endowment for an industrial school, under "The Neglected and Criminal Children Act, 1867," and the lands described in the Second Schedule hereto have become similarly vested as an endowment for the support and maintenance of lunatic and other asylums within the Provincial District of Auckland :

And whereas the lands lastly described could be more profitably utilized by appropriating the same for the purposes of an industrial school, and by erecting thereon suitable buildings out of the proceeds of the sale of the lands herein first described, which are too limited in extent for the purpose for which they have been reserved :

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Auckland Industrial School Reserve Act, 1882." Short Title.

2. This Act shall be deemed to be a special Act within the meaning of "The Public Reserves Act, 1881." Act a special Act.

3. The Governor, on behalf of Her Majesty, may, at any time or from time to time, as may seem most advantageous, after one month's notice by public advertisement published once a week during four consecutive weeks in a newspaper circulating within the City and Provincial District of Auckland, sell by public auction the lands described in the First Schedule hereto, together with all buildings erected thereon, either in one lot or in parcels as to him shall seem fit. Governor may sell Auckland Industrial School reserves.

The proceeds to arise from any such sale shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund. Application of proceeds.

Colonial Treasurer
may advance moneys for erection of new industrial schools.

4. In anticipation of any such sale, and for the purpose of, or towards the erecting of buildings suitable and necessary for an industrial school on the lands described in the Second Schedule hereto, the Colonial Treasurer is hereby authorized to issue and pay, from time to time, any sums not exceeding four thousand pounds, on the requisition of the Colonial Secretary, 5 to such persons as he may appoint to receive the same, and such moneys shall be recouped out of the proceeds of the sales aforesaid, as they shall from time to time accrue.

Lunatic Asylum
reserve appropriated to industrial school.

5. The lands described in the Second Schedule hereto shall no longer be held in trust for the purposes hereinbefore recited, but henceforth shall vest in 10 and be held by Her Majesty the Queen in trust as a site and endowment for an industrial school under "The Neglected and Criminal Children Act, 1867."

Repeal.

6. "The Industrial School Act, 1872," of the Province of Auckland, is hereby repealed.

Schedules.
