A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to provide for the Utilisation of Education Reserves for Settlement Purposes. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Education Reserves Settlement Act, 1887." Short Title.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in section two hundred and thirty-seven or section two hundred and forty of "The Land Act, 1885" (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), when and so often as he shall deem it expedient so to do, the Governor in Council may, by Proclamation, declare that any education reserve or reserves, or any part of an education reserve, shall, upon the expiry of any then existing lease, license, or other tenure, be dealt with under the provisions of the said Act, or any amendment thereof, in such manner as shall be set forth in such Proclamation; and such Proclamation shall thereupon have full force and effect, and shall not depend upon the request or recommendation of the body or person in whom any such reserve is vested. Reserves may be proclaimed.

3. The lands comprised in such Proclamation shall, in the case of lease, be subject to the provisions of sections two hundred and thirty-eight and two hundred and thirty-nine, or, in case of sale, to the provisions of sections two hundred and forty-one, two hundred and forty-two, two hundred and forty-three, two hundred and forty-four, and two hundred and forty-six, of the said Act; but the right to renew any then existing lease shall cease to be exercisable in respect of the whole or any part of the reserve or reserves so proclaimed as and from the date of such Proclamation. How lands to be dealt with. Existing leases not renewable.
