A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to establish a Division of Mental Hygiene of the Department of Health and provide for Matters incidental thereto; and to make consequential Amendments to the Health Act, 1920, and other Enactments.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Health Amendment Act, 1947, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Health Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. (1) There shall be a Division of the Department of Health to be called the Division of Mental Hygiene.
(2) As from the passing of this Act the Mental Hospitals Department established under the Mental Defectives Amendment Act, 1928, shall cease to be a separate Department of State and shall be the Division of Mental Hygiene established under this section.

See Reprint of Statutes,
Vol. V, p. 743

(3) The Division of Mental Hygiene shall be charged with the administration of the Mental Defectives Act, 1911.

(4) In addition to the Director of the Division of Mental Hygiene provided for by section four of the principal Act (as amended by this Act) there shall from time to time be appointed a Deputy Director of that Division. 5

(5) All officers who on the passing of this Act hold permanent appointments as officers of the Mental Hospitals Department shall be deemed to have been duly appointed as officers of the Department of Health. 10
