

REPUBLIC OF IRELAND BILL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THIS Bill deals with the position that has arisen by reason of the fact that the Republic of Ireland has ceased to be part of His Majesty's dominions.

Clause 2 declares that the Republic of Ireland is not a foreign country, and the law of New Zealand, present and future, is to be construed accordingly.

Clause 3 provides that all existing laws (that is, laws in force at the passing of this Bill) will continue to apply as if the Republic of Ireland had not ceased to be part of His Majesty's dominions, unless any such law is duly altered after the passing of the Bill.

By subclause (2) of clause 1 the foregoing provisions are made retrospective to 18th April, 1949, being the date on which the Republic of Ireland ceased to be part of His Majesty's dominions.

Clause 4 applies the Bill to the Cook Islands, the Tokelau Islands, and Western Samoa, and declares the Bill to be a reserved enactment—that is, one that cannot be repealed or altered by the Legislature of Western Samoa.
