A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to regulate the Sale of Second-hand Articles, and to provide for the Licensing of Second-hand Dealers. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Second-hand Dealers' Licensing Act, 1894." Short Title.

2. Every one who shall carry on business or seek his livelihood by the sale or exchange of second-hand articles, goods, and chattels, shall be deemed a second-hand dealer within the meaning of this Act. Interpretation.

3. From and after the commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the holder of a license under this Act, to carry on the trade or business of a second-hand dealer. Second-hand dealers to be licensed.

4. Any person who, without having first obtained such license, shall carry on such trade or business shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds. Penalty.

5. Any person wishing to obtain a license under this Act shall deliver to the Clerk of the Borough or the Clerk of the County Council or other local authority, as the case may be, within which he intends to carry on such business, an application in the form of the First Schedule hereto, or to the like effect, and recommended by three householders in the borough or county in which the applicant may apply. Application for license.

6. The Council of the borough or county, as the case may be, if satisfied with the character of the person so applying, may grant a license in the form in the Second Schedule hereto, which license shall continue in force for one year from the date thereof, and shall be delivered to the person so applying therefor on payment of the sum of pounds.

- Alphabetical record to be kept. 5. The Clerk of the borough or county by which such licenses shall be granted shall keep an alphabetical record thereof.
- Name of licensee to be displayed. 6. Every person who shall hold a license under this Act shall have his name in full painted in legible characters, at least two inches long, with the words "licensed second-hand dealer," so as constantly and permanently to be seen and read over the door of each shop or place by him kept or used for carrying on the business aforesaid. 5
- Penalty. Any person who shall fail or neglect to comply with this provision shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. 10
- Penalty for displaying sign where no license held. 7. If any person not actually holding a license under this Act shall keep up any sign, writing, or other mark on or near his shop, house, or premises which may imply or give reasonable cause to believe that such shop, house, or premises is or are the shop, house, or premises of a licensed second-hand dealer, shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and on a second conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day he shall so offend. 15
- License to be produced on demand. 8. Every person holding a license under this Act shall at all reasonable times, on demand at his licensed shop or premises whereat such license shall be exercised, produce his license to any constable, and if any licensed person shall neglect or refuse to produce his license he shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, unless some reasonable excuse can be given to the satisfaction of the Justices hearing the case for the non-production thereof. 20
- Register of articles bought or sold to be kept. 9. Every second-hand dealer shall keep a book wherein he shall enter each article bought or sold, the date of such purchase or sale, and, in the case of an article bought, the name, residence, and calling of the seller, and shall obtain the signature of the seller to such entry. 25
- Any licensed dealer shall fail or neglect to keep such book or to enter therein the particulars required to be entered as aforesaid he shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds. 30
- Cancellation of licenses. 10. If by information on oath it shall be made to appear to two Justices that any second-hand dealer has been guilty of any fraud or dishonesty in his business, or has been guilty of any offence under this Act, and which fraud, dishonesty, or offence shall, in the opinion of the Justices, show such second-hand dealer to be an unfit person to carry on the business of a second-hand dealer, then such Justices may, in their discretion, and independently of any other penalty or penalties to which such second-hand dealer may be liable by reason of such offence, absolutely deprive such second-hand dealer of his license: Provided that such second-hand dealer may appeal from the decision of such Justices, as provided by "The Justices of the Peace Act, 1882." 40
- Fees and fines to belong to borough or county. 11. All fees paid and fines recovered under this Act shall belong to the borough or county within which such fees and fines are paid and recovered. 45
