A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Trustee Act, 1908.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Trustee Act Amendment Act, 1919. Short Title.

2. Where a trustee is seised or possessed of any property, real or personal, upon any trusts for both charitable objects and other objects not charitable, and is by the will or deed creating such trust given a discretion as to the amount payable to each of such objects so that he may if he thinks fit dispose of the whole of such property for charitable purposes only, then in the event of the trusts being declared void on the ground of uncertainty of the objects not charitable the trusts for charitable purposes shall not be invalidated, but shall remain in full force and effect. Trusts for charitable purposes not to be invalidated if trusts declared void on ground of uncertainty.

3. This Act shall apply to all property of which a trustee is seised or possessed on such trusts as are mentioned in the last preceding section, notwithstanding any decision of the Court that the trusts upon which such property is so held are void for uncertainty. Such trustee may apply to the Court, and the Court may order that the whole of such property be held in trust for charitable objects. Trustee may apply to the Court.
