A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to provide for the Licensing of Hawkers.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Undesirable Hawkers Prevention Act, 1896." Short Title.

2. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,— Interpretation.
"Conveyance" means any vehicle, vessel, or other contrivance of any sort whatsoever which may be used for the carriage of goods either by land or water :

"Local authority" means the Council or Board of any borough or town district; and outside of such places means the No. 108—1.

Council of any county, or such Road or Town Board as may be administering the functions of a County Council :

A town district, for the purposes of this Act, shall be deemed not to form part of the county wherein it is comprised :

“ Local district ” means any portion of the colony under the administration of a local authority as herein defined :

“ Magistrate ” means a Stipendiary Magistrate appointed under “ The Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1893 ” :

“ Provincial district ” means any portion of the colony within the boundaries of a provincial district as existing at the time of the abolition of the provincial districts.

HAWKERS AND HAWKERS’ LICENSES.

Definition of “hawker.”	3. Every person who carries on business by the sale of goods hawked or carried about in any manner for sale shall be deemed a hawker within the meaning of this Act.	15
All hawkers to be licensed.	4. From and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, it shall not be lawful for any person to in any way carry on the business of a hawker except pursuant to the authority of a license issued to him under this Act, and within the district for which such license is issued.	20
Classes of licenses.	5. Licenses under this Act shall be of four classes, as follows :— (1.) Local licenses ; (2.) Local personal licenses ; (3.) Extended licenses ; (4.) Extended personal licenses.	25
Extent of local license, and fee therefor.	6. A local license shall authorise the holder thereof to carry on business within the local district for which it is issued (but not outside the same) as a hawker with goods hawked or carried about in any manner; and the holder of such license shall pay in respect thereof an annual fee of ten shillings.	30
Local personal license and fee.	7. A local personal license shall authorise the holder thereof to carry on business within the local district for which it is issued (but not outside the same) as a hawker with goods hawked or carried about on or about the person, on foot only, but not on any animal or in any conveyance; and the holder of such license shall pay in respect thereof an annual fee of five shillings.	35
Extended license and fee.	8. An extended license shall authorise the holder thereof to carry on business within the provincial district for which it is issued (but not outside the same) as a hawker with goods hawked or carried about in any manner; and the holder of such license shall pay in respect thereof the annual fee of five pounds.	40
Extended personal license and fee.	9. An extended personal license shall authorise the holder thereof to carry on business within the provincial district for which it is issued (but not outside the same) with goods hawked or carried about on or about the person, on foot only, but not on any animal or in any conveyance; and the holder of such license shall pay in respect thereof the annual fee of two pounds.	45

METHOD OF OBTAINING LICENSES.

10. It shall not be lawful for any person to hold a license under this Act unless— Qualifications for license.

19. If not satisfied as aforesaid, the Magistrate may reject any such application, or adjourn the consideration thereof from time to time, as he sees fit: Provided that such adjournments do not in the whole exceed three weeks from the day when such application was first heard.

CURRENCY AND RENEWAL OF LICENSES.

Duration of licenses.

20. Every license issued under this Act shall take effect from the date of the issue thereof, and, unless sooner forfeited, shall expire on the thirty-first day of December thereafter, but may be renewed from year to year in manner hereinafter provided.

10

Application for renewal.

21. Any licensee under this Act who desires to obtain a renewal of his license shall make application therefor in the same manner and at the same Courthouse as in the case of his original application for the license, save that the ratepayers' certificate shall not be necessary; and all the provisions of this Act relating to the original application and the proceedings thereon shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the application for renewal:

15

Provided that the renewal may be effected by indorsing on the original license the words "renewed until 31st December, 18 ,," with the signatures of the Magistrate and the Clerk of the Court.

20

issued or renewed.

22. The Clerk shall keep a register wherein shall be entered from time to time the name of every licensee, the number and class of his license, the district for which it is issued, the date of its issue, renewal, or forfeiture, as the case may be, and the amount of the license-fee received in respect of its issue or renewal.

25

DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF LICENSEES AND OTHERS.

Licensed hawker to display name, &c.

23. Every licensee under this Act shall at all times whilst carrying on his business have and carry about with him his name in full, together with the words "licensed hawker," and the number of his license, clearly painted in legible characters, at least two inches long, in some conspicuous place, so as to be constantly seen and read.

30

Unlicensed person not to act as hawker.

24. It shall not be lawful for any person not being a licensee under this Act to in any way or by any method or device hold himself out to be a licensed hawker.

Hawker not to carry on business outside his district.

25. It shall not be lawful for any licensee under this Act to in any way carry on business as a hawker outside the boundaries of the local or provincial district named in his license.

35

Hawker not to have alcoholic liquor in his possession.

26. It shall not be lawful for any licensee under this Act, whilst going about as a hawker, to have any fermented or spirituous liquor in his possession, or, at any time, to have any such liquor in any pack or other receptacle or in any conveyance used by him in the course of his business.

40

Justice may grant warrant to search for same.

27. (1.) Any person having reasonable ground to suspect that any licensee under this Act is committing a breach of the last-preceding section hereof may make oath to that effect before any Justice of the Peace at any time and in any place, and thereupon such Justice may grant a warrant authorising such person, or any police officer or constable, to examine and search the person, and every pack, receptacle, and conveyance of any sort, of the hawker named or described in the warrant, and such warrant shall remain in force for such time as is therein mentioned.

(2.) Any Justice, police officer, or constable having reasonable grounds for suspicion as aforesaid may at any time, without a warrant, search every pack, receptacle, and conveyance of any sort of any licensee under this Act.

28. If fermented or spirituous liquor is at any time being hawked or carried about or exposed for sale in any place whatsoever by any person not licensed according to law to sell the same in such place, then such liquor, and the vessels containing the same, and all the utensils used for drinking or measuring the same, and any animal or vehicle employed in drawing or carrying the same, may without warrant be seized by any Justice, officer of police, or constable.

Seizure of liquor and vessels, &c.

29. If any Justice is satisfied, after due inquiry and examination, that any fermented or spirituous liquors seized under the provisions of this Act were carried contrary to law, or were hawked or carried about for the purpose of being illegally sold, he may (subject to the right of appeal under "The Justices of the Peace Act, 1882") adjudge the said liquors, and the vessels, utensils, animals, and vehicles seized therewith, to be condemned and forfeited, and in such case the same shall be sold, and the proceeds thereof shall be deemed to be penalties recovered under this Act.

Justice may adjudge liquor, vessels, &c., forfeited.

30. In all cases where fermented or spirituous liquors are carried from one place to another, the burden of proving that such liquors were not so carried contrary to law, or for the purposes of illegal sale, shall lie upon the party carrying them.

Burden of proof when such liquors carried.

31. If any licensee under this Act is convicted of knowingly dealing in or selling any kind of smuggled or contraband goods, or any goods fraudulently procured, either by himself or through the medium of others with his privity, then, in addition to any other penalty or punishment to which he is liable, his license shall be forfeited; and for such period, not exceeding two years, as the convicting Court determines, he shall be incapable of obtaining any new license.

Penalty for dealing in smuggled or contraband goods.

32. Any constable may, without warrant, seize and detain any person, not being a licensee under this Act, who is found carrying on the business of a hawker, and may keep him so detained until the following day for the purpose of being proceeded against for such offence, unless the same can be sooner disposed of.

Constable may detain unlicensed hawker.

33. Every licensee under this Act shall, within a reasonable period after demand therefor, produce his license to any Justice, police officer, or constable, or to any person to whom he within the previous twenty-four hours sold or offered to sell any goods.

Production of hawker's license.

34. (1.) Every local authority and every Harbour Board may, in manner provided by any Act authorising such local authority or Harbour Board to make by-laws, from time to time make by-laws to regulate the conduct and provide against the misconduct of licensees under this Act.

By-laws.

- (2.) Every breach of any such by-law shall entail such penalty as the local authority or Harbour Board thinks fit to prescribe, not exceeding the maximum penalty authorised by such Act for breach of a by-law.
- Forfeiture of license improperly obtained. 35. Every licensed hawker who has improperly obtained a license contrary to the true meaning of this Act commits an offence, and on conviction thereof such license shall be forfeited. 5
- Penalty for letting out or hiring license. 36. Every person is liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds who lets out or hires or lends any license issued to him under this Act, or trades with or under colour of any license issued to any other person, or of any license in which his own name is not inserted as the name of the licensee. 10
- Person deemed unlicensed unless license produced. 37. In all proceedings against any person for having acted as a hawker without a license, he shall be deemed to have been unlicensed unless he produces his license or brings other satisfactory proof of his having been licensed at the time when the alleged offence was committed. 15
- License to be produced in Court. 38. (1.) In all proceedings against a licensee under this Act, in respect of any offence under this Act, he shall produce to the Court his license, and every conviction for any such offence shall by the convicting Court be indorsed on the license. 20
- License may be forfeited on second conviction. (2.) If any licensee under this Act is convicted of an offence under this Act, and thereafter is convicted of a second or any subsequent offence of any kind under this Act, the convicting Court may, in addition to any other penalty, forfeit his license. 25
- Penalty for offences. 39. If any licensee under this Act at any time or in any manner commits any offence under this Act he shall, in every case where no other penalty is provided, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.
- Penalties under other Acts not affected. 40. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any penalty or punishment being inflicted on any person under any other law or Act, provided that such person is not punished twice in respect of the same offence. 30
- MISCELLANEOUS.
- Notice of forfeiture of license. 41. In every case where a license is forfeited as the result of a conviction, the Clerk of the convicting Court shall send notice of the forfeiture to the Clerk of the Court that issued the license, and such Clerk shall duly record such forfeiture. 35
- When full license-fee payable. 42. The full license-fee for the year shall be payable for any license issued before the first day of July in any year, and half such license-fee shall be payable for any license issued on or after that date. 40
- Fees and penalties to be paid into a separate account. 43. All license-fees received and all penalties recovered under this Act shall be paid into the Public Account to the credit of the Local Bodies' Account under the heading of "Hawkers' License-fees and Penalties." 45
- Application of fees and penalties. 44. All fees and penalties in such last-mentioned account on the thirty-first day of March in each year shall on that day, or as soon as practicable thereafter, and without further appropriation than this Act, be applied and apportioned by the Colonial Treasurer in manner following, that is to say:—

- 5 (1.) In paying to the local authority of each local district an amount equal to all license-fees received in respect of licenses issued or renewed for such district;
- 10 (2.) In apportioning equally amongst all the local authorities of all the local districts comprised within a provincial district an amount equal to all license-fees received in respect of licenses issued or renewed for such provincial district, and all penalties recovered in such provincial district:

15 Provided that, in any case where a local district is comprised partly within one provincial district and partly within another, it shall, for the purposes of such apportionment, be deemed to be wholly comprised within the provincial district wherein the greater part of its area is situate.

20 45. (1.) Every hawkers' and pedlars' license in force at the commencement of this Act shall, unless sooner forfeited, remain in force until the expiry thereof by effluxion of time, but in all other respects shall be deemed to have been issued under this Act and shall be subject to the provisions hereof accordingly.

Hawkers' and pedlars' licenses at present in force.

25 (2.) No such license shall be renewed, but the holder thereof may on the expiry thereof make application in manner hereinbefore provided as for a license to be obtained for the first time.

46. Nothing in this Act shall be construed—

Exemptions from operation of Act.

- 30 (1) To prevent any person selling or offering for sale, without a license under this Act, any newspapers or periodicals, or any bread, meat, fish, fruit, water, fuel, milk, vegetables, or victuals of any description, or any agricultural produce; nor
- 35 (2) To prevent, without a license under this Act, any person, by himself or his children, apprentices, agents, or servants usually residing in the same house with him, selling or offering for sale goods made or worked on by him or them; nor
- (3) To prevent, without a license under this Act, any goods being sold or offered for sale in any market or fair legally established in New Zealand.

40 47. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to commercial travellers, meaning thereby persons permanently employed by wholesale merchants as commercial travelling agents for the purpose of selling goods to or seeking orders for goods from persons who are dealers therein, and who buy to sell again.

Commercial travellers excepted.
