A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to declare that certain Private Streets and Private Ways in the City of Wellington are Public Streets. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Wellington City Streets Act, 1905." Short Title.

10 Schedule hereto are hereby declared to be and the same are public streets as defined in section two hundred and nine of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900." Certain private streets and private ways are declared to be streets.

15 3. Notwithstanding anything contained in "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," or any amendment thereof, no new building shall be erected, used, or occupied as a dwellinghouse in within the City of Wellington after the passing of this Act on land fronting any right of private way that is less than forty feet in width unless every part of such building is distant at least twenty feet from the centre-line of such private way; such centre-line to be defined by the Corporation. New buildings on private ways.

New clauses.

25 3A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section two hundred and thirty-two of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-one of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," shall, so far as relates to the City of Wellington, extend to all private ways in the said city actually in use, laid out, or constructed, whether consented to by the Council of the said city or not. Section 231 of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," to extend to all private ways in the city.

30 3B. If any person erects any building contrary to the provisions of this Act, or to any condition imposed under the provisions of this Act, such person is liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds for every day during which such breach continues. Penalty for unlawful erection of buildings.
