A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Wellington Reclaimed Land Act, 1871." Title.

WHEREAS on the thirtieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, the mortgage debt of thirty-one thousand pounds mentioned in section four of "The Wellington Reclaimed Land Act, 1871" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), with all interest then due thereon, was duly paid off by the Mayor, Councilors, and Citizens of the City of Wellington (hereinafter called "the Corporation"):

10 BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Wellington Reclaimed Land Act 1871 Amendment Act, 1894." Short Title.

15 2. The estate and interest, created by the principal Act, of the Governor in so much of the land described in the First Schedule thereof as is now subject to the provisions of such Act is hereby vested in the Corporation, discharged from the said mortgage debt of thirty-one thousand pounds and all interest due in respect thereof. Land vested in Corporation discharged from mortgage.

20 3. The powers of lease and sale given to the Corporation by the principal Act shall be, and as from the said thirtieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, be deemed to have been, exercisable by the Corporation without such consent and sanction of the Governor as were required by the principal Act. Governor's consent to exercise of powers dispensed with.
