Thursday, the 1st day of August, 1889.

FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANIES BILL.

Hon. Sir J. HALL, in Committee, to move the following new clause, to follow clause 7 :—

Any local company hereafter incorporated under “The Companies Act, 1832,” and so incorporated for the purpose of insuring only the property of its own shareholders, and of no other person, may be registered as a limited liability company under that Act, if such company shall have a paid-up capital intact of not less than twenty-five thousand pounds, and also an uncalled capital of not less than twenty-five thousand pounds.

REPRESENTATION BILL.

Mr. GUINNESS, in Committee, to move the following new clause :—

Unless a candidate at an election receives an absolute majority of the votes recorded, the Returning Officer shall not declare such candidate to be elected ; but the Returning Officer shall proceed to take a second poll, after giving the notices in that behalf required by law, at which second poll only the two candidates who have received the largest number of votes at the first poll shall be entitled to be candidates ; and the candidate receiving the largest number of votes at such second poll shall be declared to be elected.

Mr. FELDWICK, in Committee, to move the following new clause :—

Clause 2 of “The Representation Acts Amendment Act, 1887,” is amended as follows :—

The words “seventy-four,” where they occur in the said clause, shall read seventy-three, and the word “four,” where it occurs further on in the said clause shall read three.
