Friday, the 25th day of June, 1880.

AUCTIONEERS BILL.

Hon. Mr. DICK, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

Clause 3. Immediately after the said clause to insert the following new clause:—

3A. Any person desirous of obtaining an auctioneer's license shall give not less than one month's public notice thereof, and also shall lodge with the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate's Court of the district, not less than one month before his intended application, a notice in writing of his intention to apply for the same in the form in the Second Schedule hereto, and shall also deliver with such last-mentioned notice a certificate of character in the form attached to the said Schedule, signed by six respectable householders resident in the district.

3B. The Clerk of such Court shall cause a list of all applicants for auctioneer's licenses, with their places of abode respectively, and the names and residences of the householders signing the aforesaid certificate, to be posted in some conspicuous place inside and outside of the courthouse for at least fourteen days before the applications shall be heard. Any person may lodge objections to any application at any time before the same is disposed of.

3C. After the expiration of the fourteen days last mentioned, the Resident Magistrate of the district shall hear and dispose of such applications, and inquire into any objections thereto, and may examine on oath any witnesses he may think necessary, and after such examination, or without hearing any such evidence, may either refuse any such application or grant a certificate to the applicant authorizing the issue of the license. Such certificate need not be of any particular form, but shall be signed by the Resident Magistrate granting the same, and sealed with the seal of his Court.

Clause 4. To omit the words "apply for the same," and to substitute in lieu thereof "deposit with him the certificate mentioned in the last preceding section."

Clause 12. To omit the same, and to substitute in lieu thereof the following:—

No licensed auctioneer shall conduct any sale by auction except by daylight: Provided that, in the case of sales of live stock or farming implements in open yards or premises, the same may be continued in the evening of the day whereon such sale was commenced, for not more than one hour after sunset, for the purpose of concluding the same.

Clause 18. Immediately after the said clause, to insert the following new clauses:—

18A. Every person shall be guilty of felony who shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, any license, or any seal or signature to any license, or shall use or tender in evidence any such forged, counterfeited, or altered license or seal or signature, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered.

18B. Every person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every separate offence who shall let out or hire or lend any license granted to him, or shall trade with or under colour of any license granted to any other person whomsoever, or of any license in which his own name shall not be inserted as the name of the person to whom the same is granted.

LICENSING BILL.

Hon. Mr. DICK, in Committee, to move the following amendments in relation to wholesale licenses:—

Clause 2. To add the following words: "further than as is herein expressly mentioned."

Clause 27. To omit the first two paragraphs thereof, and to substitute in lieu thereof the following:—

No brewer or spirit merchant shall be entitled to carry on his business of brewing or the sale of spirits, notwithstanding he may be registered under "The Distillation Act, 1868," unless he shall obtain a wholesale license under this Act.

The license fee payable under "The Distillation Act, 1868," in respect of the registration of brewers and spirit merchants, is hereby abolished.

Henceforth spirit merchants shall not be required to register themselves under the said Act; but brewers shall be registered thereunder as heretofore, except that no fee shall be charged for such registration.

Paragraph 3. To omit the words "or spirit merchant."

Wholesale licenses may be granted, and applications for the same shall be made, in the same manner as is provided in section seventy-two, in respect of club licenses.

Where two or more persons carry on business as brewers or spirit merchants in co-partnership, a wholesale license may be issued in the name of the firm or co-partnership, but a separate license shall be required in respect of every separate district wherein such firm carries on business.

The forms of application and certificate in relation to a club license contained in the Third and Sixth Schedules respectively may, mutatis mutandis, be used in relation to wholesale licenses.

168A. Every person shall be guilty of felony who shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, any license, or any seal or signature to any license, or shall use or tender in evidence any such forged, counterfeited, or altered license or seal or signature, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered.
