MATRIMONIAL PROCEEDINGS BILL

Proposed Amendment

Hon. Mr HANAN, in Committee, to move the following amendment:

Clause 47A (as proposed to be inserted by the Statutes Revision Committee): To add to the proviso the words "not being an order under section 49 of this Act directing the sale of a matrimonial home".

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The proviso to the proposed new clause 47A provides that no money payable under a mortgage or any encumbrance shall be called up or become due by reason of the making of any order under Part VIII of the Bill.

The effect of this amendment will be that this proviso will not affect any express or implied power conferred on the mortgagee to require repayment of any mortgage of a matrimonial home if the home is sold pursuant to an order for sale made under clause 49 of the Bill.
