

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

---

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

---

Wednesday, the 11th Day of September, 1901.

PRIVILEGE.

Interrupted debate on the question, That in the matter of the breach of privilege that has arisen through the publicity of the evidence given before the Goldfields and Mines Committee, in respect to the promotion and flotation of certain dredging claims by Mr. Cook, by the Dunedin Evening Star the House accepts* as satisfactory the expression of regret of the representative of that journal, and this House resolves to proceed no further in the matter. (Rt. Hon. R. J. SEDDON.) And the amendment proposed thereto, To omit the words "as satisfactory," in line 5. (Hon. Mr. MCGOWAN.)

---

* Affirmed down to and including "accepts."