

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Friday, the 17th day of August, 1888.

FENCING BILL.

The Hon. Mr. HISLOP, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

Subject to the exception contained in section six of the said Act Crown tenants shall be deemed to be occupiers of the land held by them, and liable to the provisions of the said Act accordingly.

All other persons who have in any manner purchased or acquired, or may hereafter from time to time purchase or acquire, Crown lands, or any estate or interest therein, shall be deemed to be occupiers of such land, and liable to the provisions of the said Act accordingly.

WINE-GROWERS' DISTILLATION BILL.

Sir G. GREY, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

6. The provisions of "The Distillation Act, 1868," or of any Act amending the same, and also the provisions of "The Excise Duties Act, 1874," shall not be deemed to apply to the distillation of spirits under the authority of a license granted under this Act, and no duty or tax of any description shall be payable in respect of any spirits distilled under the authority of any such license.

DISTRICT RAILWAYS PURCHASING ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. DUNCAN, in Committee, to move the following new clauses:—

If it should be made to appear to the Governor that the classification of any of the lands within any of the districts is unfair, he may cause the same to be reclassified; and, for that purpose, may take such steps as may be necessary and which may be prescribed by regulations by the Governor in Council.

No rate under the principal Act or Amendment Act shall be enforced against any person who has become liable thereto only as a purchaser of land from the Crown since the date of authorisation of the railway in respect of which such rate is made.
