CATHERINE A. TIZARD, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At Wellington this 28th day of June 1993

Present:

HER EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to section 167 (1) (l) of the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Act 1992, Her Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

ANALYSIS

1. Title and commencement
2. Interpretation
3. Application

4. Corporation to pay certain costs
5. Goods and services tax
6. Revocation and savings Schedule

REGULATIONS

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance (Overseas Visitors Costs and Costs of Certificates) Regulations 1993.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of July 1993.

2. Interpretation—In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Act” means the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Act 1992:

“Acupuncturist” means a member of the New Zealand Register of Acupuncturists Incorporated:

“Chiropractor” means any person who holds a current annual practising certificate issued by the Chiropractic Board:

“Claimant” means a person who has suffered personal injury and had a claim accepted in respect of it under the Act:

“Corporation” means the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Corporation:

“Dentist” means any person who holds a current annual practising certificate issued by the Dental Council of New Zealand:

“General practitioner” means any registered medical practitioner working in a non-specialist capacity; and includes any specialist working outside his or her speciality:

“Licensed hospital” means a licensed hospital within the meaning of the Hospitals Act 1957:

“Occupational therapist” means any occupational therapist who holds a current annual practising certificate issued by the Occupational Therapy Board:

“Osteopath” means a member of the New Zealand Register of Osteopaths Incorporated:

“Personal injury” means personal injury covered by the Act:

“Physiotherapist” means any person who holds a current annual practising certificate issued by the Physiotherapy Board:

“Podiatrist” means any person registered with the Podiatry Board:

“Psychologist” means a person registered under the Psychologists Act 1981 who possesses relevant qualifications in clinical psychology:

“Psychotherapist” means a member of the New Zealand Association of Psychotherapists or the New Zealand Association of Child Psychotherapists:

“Registered medical practitioner” means any person who holds a current annual practising certificate issued by the Medical Council of New Zealand:

“Speech therapist” means a member of the New Zealand Speech Language Therapists Association (Incorporated):

“Treatment provider” means an acupuncturist, chiropractor, dentist, registered medical practitioner, occupational therapist, osteopath, psychologist, psychotherapist, physiotherapist, podiatrist, or speech therapist.

3. Application—(1) Subject to these regulations, these regulations shall apply in respect of any treatment provided on or after the 1st day of July 1993 by a licensed hospital, or by a treatment provider under a contract of service or for services in that licensed hospital, to a claimant in respect of personal injury irrespective of—

- (a) The date on which any fee for any treatment was charged or paid; or
- (b) The date on which the personal injury occurred.

(2) These regulations (other than regulation 6 (2)) shall not apply in respect of any treatment provided before the 1st day of July 1993 to a claimant in respect of personal injury, irrespective of the date of the claiming or payment of any fee for the treatment.

4. Corporation to pay certain costs—(1) Subject to these regulations, the Corporation shall pay the costs of certificates or treatment provided by a licensed hospital, or by a treatment provider under a contract of service or for services in that licensed hospital, to any claimant in respect of personal injury to the extent specified in the Schedule to these regulations.

(2) The Corporation shall not pay any costs unless it has received such information and declarations as it may require in order to verify that the claimant has suffered personal injury and that the treatment in respect of which the claim for payment is made was provided in respect of personal injury.

(3) The Corporation shall not pay any costs unless it has been advised of the date on which the treatment was provided and the specific nature of that treatment.

(4) The costs payable by the Corporation, as required or permitted under these regulations, shall be paid—

(a) To the licensed hospital; or

(b) If they have already been paid by the claimant, then to the claimant.

5. Goods and services tax—All amounts specified or referred to in these regulations are inclusive of goods and services tax.

6. Revocation and savings—(1) The Accident Compensation (Public Hospital Costs) Regulations 1990 (S.R. 1990/231) are hereby revoked.

(2) Notwithstanding subclause (1) of this regulation, where a certificate or treatment has been provided to a claimant before the close of the 30th day of June 1993, the regulations revoked by subclause (1) of this regulation shall continue to apply in respect of the certificate or treatment so provided.

DIANE WILDERSPIN,
 Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 July 1993, replace the Accident Compensation (Public Hospitals Costs) Regulations 1990.

The regulations permit payments in respect of treatment provided to overseas visitors in licensed hospitals. They also provide for payments in respect of certificates issued by licensed hospitals.

Treatment provided by a public hospital before 1 July 1993 is to be paid for as if these regulations had not been made.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 30 June 1993.

These regulations are administered in the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Corporation.
