

THE GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS CLASSIFICATION AND PAY REGULATIONS 1942, AMENDMENT NO. 2.

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 18th day of December, 1945

Present :

THE RIGHT HON. P. FRASER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Government Railways Act, 1926, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Government Railways Classification and Pay Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Government Railways Classification and Pay Regulations 1942* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) These regulations shall be deemed to have come into force on the 10th day of December, 1945.

2. The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after Regulation 13, the following new regulation:—

“ 13A. Members of the First Division who are advanced in grade and whose advancement in grade is, pursuant to section 27 of the Statutes Amendment Act, 1945, declared to be special promotion shall be deemed to be classified in the grade to which they are specially promoted, except that for the purposes of subsection five of section five of the Government Railways Amendment Act, 1927, the seniority of members who have been specially promoted as aforesaid shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:—

“ (a) The seniority of a member who has been specially promoted shall be determined in all cases as if he had not been specially promoted except for the purposes of further special promotion (by reason of the holding of an examination qualification) from a position to which he was specially promoted by reason of the holding of the same examination qualification :

* Statutory Regulations 1942, Serial number 1942/345, page 850.

Amendment No. 1: Statutory Regulations 1945, Serial number 1945/176, page 449.

“ Provided that every member specially promoted shall be entitled to advancement in seniority up to and within the grade to which he is specially promoted from his classified position immediately before his special promotion to the same extent as he would have advanced if he had not been specially promoted. The grade or subgrade in which a member is classified immediately prior to his special promotion or to which he is advanced pursuant to this proviso is hereinafter in this regulation referred to as his ‘ ordinary grade ’ :

- “ (b) Subject to paragraph (a) hereof, in the case of a member specially promoted to any grade by reason of the possession by him of an examination qualification, that member, for the purposes of further special promotion in or to any position the nature of which, in the opinion of the General Manager, requires that the occupant thereof should possess the same examination qualification, shall be deemed to be senior to a member (whether or not specially promoted) who was in a lower grade at the time of the special promotion of the first-mentioned member :
- “ (c) As between members who have been specially promoted to the same higher grade by reason of their possessing the same examination qualification, the member who was first specially promoted to the higher grade shall be deemed to be senior to the other member for the purposes of further special promotion in or to any position the nature of which, in the opinion of the General Manager, requires that the occupant thereof should possess the same examination qualification :
- “ (d) As between a member who has been specially promoted by reason of possessing a particular examination qualification, on the one hand, and a member possessing the same examination qualification (whether acquired subsequently to the special promotion of the other member or not) who has not been promoted by reason of possessing that qualification and whose ordinary grade at the time of the special promotion of the first-mentioned member was the same as the grade to which that member was specially promoted, on the other hand, the second-mentioned member shall be deemed to be senior to the first-mentioned member for the purposes of special promotion in or to any position the nature of which, in the opinion of the General Manager, requires that the occupant thereof should possess the same examination qualification.”

W. O. HARVEY,
 Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act, 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette : 19th day of December, 1945.

These regulations are administered in the Government Railways Department.

By Authority: E. V. PAUL, Government Printer, Wellington.—1945.

Price 2d.]