Notice

1 Title

This notice is the Land Transport (Certificates of Compliance for Evidential Breath-Testing Device (Dräger 7110)) Notice 2001.

2 Commencement

This notice comes into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

In this notice, the term Dräger 7110 has the same meaning as in clause 2(1) of the Transport (Breath Tests) Notice (No 2) 1989 (SR 1989/389).

4 Matters required to be stated in certificate of compliance for Dräger 7110

If an evidential breath-testing device is a Dräger 7110, a certificate of compliance for the device—

- (a) must specify—
  - (i) the maximum period of service for the device, as set out in clause 5; and
  - (ii) the date on which that period began or begins; and
- (b) must specify—
  - (i) the maximum period permitted between the date on which a certificate of compliance is issued and the date by which a test result must be obtained, as set out in clause 6; and
  - (ii) the date on which the certificate of compliance was issued; and
- (c) must include a statement to the effect that the device is being maintained within the manufacturer's specifications.

5 Maximum period of service for device

The period referred to in clause 4(a)(i) is 15 years.

6 Maximum period permitted between date on which certificate issued and date by which test result obtained

The period referred to in clause 4(b)(i) is 12 months.

Dated at Wellington this 19th day of December 2001.

G. W. Hawkins,
Minister of Police.
